

Minnesota House of Representatives
Fiscal Analysis Department
Confidentiality Statement

As nonpartisan service departments of the Minnesota House of Representatives, the House Research Department and Fiscal Analysis Department provide services to members on a confidential basis. This means that in fulfilling a request for services, the request, the member making the request, and the response will not be revealed to individuals outside these departments without the member's permission. However, analysts within these two departments cooperate as needed to fulfill legislators' requests unless specifically directed not to do so, and also cooperate with the Office of the Revisor of Statutes as necessary in drafting legislation.
