REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Rhodes from the Committee on Governmental Operations and Veterans Affairs Policy to which was referred:

H. F. No. 159, A bill for an act proposing an amendment to the Minnesota Constitution; providing for a unicameral legislature; changing article IV; article VIII, sections 1 and 6; article IX, sections 1 and 2; and article XI, section 5; amending Minnesota Statutes 1998, sections 2.021; and 2.031, subdivision 1.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

"Sec. 5. [NOTICE.]

In addition to the requirements of Minnesota Statutes, section 3.21, the secretary of state, in consultation with the attorney general, shall prepare a voter guide that summarizes impartially the issues presented to the voters by the constitutional amendment proposed by section 1 and the arguments commonly advanced in support of and opposition to bicameral and unicameral state legislatures. Beginning at least three months before the election, the secretary of state shall publish notice of the availability of the guide in qualified newspapers of general circulation in the state and of general circulation in the various geographic regions of the state. The secretary of state shall make the guide available on the Internet, shall mail a free copy of the guide to anyone on request, and shall distribute free copies of the guide to all educational institutions, local government offices, and public libraries throughout the state in volumes sufficient to supply a free copy to anyone wishing one. In October, before the election, the secretary of state shall publish the summary once in qualified newspapers of general circulation in the state."

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill be re-referred to the Committee on State Government Finance without further recommendation.

The report was adopted.

Larsen, P., from the Committee on Local Government and Metropolitan Affairs to which was referred:

H. F. No. 591, A bill for an act relating to property; providing for the Private Property Protection Act; proposing coding for new law as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 516.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1998, section 117.042, is amended to read:

117.042 [POSSESSION.]

Whenever the petitioner shall require title and possession of all or part of the owner's property prior to the filing of an award by the court appointed commissioners, the petitioner shall, at least ~~90 days prior to~~ one year before the date on which possession is to be taken, notify the owner of the intent to possess by notice served by certified mail and before taking title and possession shall pay to the owner or deposit with the court an amount equal to petitioner's approved appraisal of value. Amounts deposited with the court shall be paid out under the direction of the court. If it is deemed necessary to deposit the above amount with the court the petitioner may apply to the court for an order transferring title and possession of the property or properties involved from the owner to the petitioner. In all other cases, petitioner has the right to the title and possession after the filing of the award by the court appointed commissioners as follows:

(a) if appeal is waived by the parties upon payment of the award;

(b) if appeal is not waived by the parties upon payment or deposit of three-fourths of the award. The amount deposited shall be deposited by the court administrator in an interest bearing account no later than the business day next following the day on which the amount was deposited with the court. All interest credited to the amount deposited from the date of deposit shall be paid to the ultimate recipient of the amount deposited.

Nothing in this section shall limit rights granted in section 117.155.

Sec. 2. [117.1451] [REIMBURSEMENT OF COSTS.]

In all eminent domain proceedings, the owner is entitled to reimbursement of reasonable expert fees, appraisal fees, and attorney fees, together with the owner's reasonable costs and disbursements relating to the eminent domain proceedings if the final award or damages, as determined at any level in the eminent domain process, exceeds the original offer of compensation made by the condemning authority by 15 percent or more.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1998, section 117.175, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The court ~~may, in its discretion shall~~, after a verdict has been rendered on the trial of an appeal, allow as taxable costs reasonable expert witness and appraisal fees of the owner, together with the owner's reasonable costs and disbursements. No expert witness fees, costs or disbursements shall be awarded to the petitioner regardless of who is the prevailing party.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1998, section 117.232, is amended to read:

117.232 [DIRECT PURCHASE.]

Subdivision 1. When acquisition of private property is accomplished by the state department of transportation by direct purchase the owner shall be entitled to reimbursement for appraisal fees, ~~not to exceed a total of $500 expert fees, attorney fees, and other reasonable costs and disbursements.~~ When acquisition of private property is accomplished by any other acquiring authority, the owner is entitled to reimbursement for appraisal fees, ~~not to exceed $500; expert fees, attorney fees, and other reasonable costs and disbursements~~ if the owner is otherwise entitled to reimbursement under sections 117.50 to 117.56. The purchaser in all instances shall inform the owner of the right, if any, to reimbursement for appraisal fees, expert fees, attorney fees, and other costs and disbursements reasonably incurred, ~~in an amount not to exceed $500;~~ together with relocation costs, moving costs and any other related expenses to which an owner is entitled by sections 117.50 to 117.56. This subdivision does not apply to acquisition for utility purposes made by a public service corporation organized pursuant to section 300.03 or electric cooperative associations organized pursuant to chapter 308A.

Subd. 2. In the event the purchaser and owner agree on the fair market value of the property but cannot agree on the appraisal fees, expert fees, attorney fees, other reasonable costs and disbursements, and moving costs, the owner shall have the option to accept the offer for the property and reject the offer for the appraisal fees, expert fees, attorney fees, other reasonable costs and disbursements, and moving costs. In addition thereto, the owner may, after due notice to all interested parties, bring a motion at a special term of the district court in the county in which the property is located for a determination of such ~~moving~~ costs and ~~appraisal~~ fees by the court."

"Sec. 98. [336.9-527] [SATELLITE OFFICES AUTHORIZED.]

The secretary of state may establish satellite offices by written agreements with public officials within the state for the purpose of meeting the filing officer responsibilities described in sections 336.9-528 to 336.9-530. The term of the agreement must be set by, and may be renewed by, mutual agreement. The agreement may be terminated upon 60 days' notice. The secretary must maintain a list of those public officials authorized to act as satellite offices. The secretary of state must make this list available in an electronic format and the list must be updated at least monthly.

Sec. 99. [336.9-528] [FILING; ASSIGNMENT OF FILING INFORMATION AT SATELLITE OFFICES.]

Satellite offices shall accept Uniform Commercial Code documents and respond to requests for information pursuant to the provisions of sections 336.9-101 to 336.9-708. A filing made at a satellite office is filed and effective at the same time and under the same rules provided for filing in any other manner in the Uniform Commercial Code information system. The filing date, time, and file number for any Uniform Commercial Code document accepted at a satellite office must be automatically assigned by the Uniform Commercial Code information management system operated by the secretary of state, and the file number must be the next available file number in the Uniform Commercial Code information management system.

Sec. 100. [336.9-529] [MAINTENANCE AND RETRIEVAL OF DOCUMENTS AND DATA.]

The secretary of state shall maintain all Uniform Commercial Code documents and the database used to index them regardless of where or how the Uniform Commercial Code document was filed. The Uniform Commercial Code documents and database must be housed in the Uniform Commercial Code information management system. Uniform Commercial Code documents and data shall be available from the secretary of state or any satellite office. The secretary of state shall arrange by mutual agreement with county recorders for the storage and retrieval of existing Uniform Commercial Code documents.

Any filing office within the Uniform Commercial Code information management system may respond to requests for information, and the secretary of state shall establish and administer a system to facilitate those responses.

Sec. 101. [336.9-530] [SATELLITE OFFICES; UNIFORMITY OF SERVICES ASSURED.]

Subdivision 1. [PERFORMANCE STANDARDS.] All filing officers must perform the responsibilities in sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-530 and rules adopted under section 140 in a uniform manner, whether services are provided by the secretary of state or at a satellite office location. Reports by citizens describing concerns with performance of filing officer responsibilities must be made to the secretary of state. The secretary of state is responsible for responding to reports about performance in a manner the secretary of state determines is appropriate.

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO MEET PERFORMANCE STANDARDS.] If, upon investigation of citizen reports described in subdivision 1, the secretary of state determines that performance by a satellite office of the filing officer responsibilities has been so unsatisfactory that customer service has been severely impaired, the secretary of state must terminate the satellite office's status and ability to perform filing office responsibilities. If a satellite office's ability to perform filing office responsibilities is terminated by the secretary of state, the change in status must be posted in the former satellite office and must also be publicly posted in the county courthouse in the county in which the former satellite office is located and must be made available in an electronic format."

"Sec. 136. [336.9-707] [AMENDMENT OF PRE-EFFECTIVE DATE FINANCING STATEMENT.]

(a) [PRE-EFFECTIVE DATE FINANCING STATEMENT.] In this section, "pre-effective date financing statement" means a financing statement filed before this act takes effect.

(b) [APPLICABLE LAW.] After this act takes effect, a person may add or delete collateral covered by, continue or terminate the effectiveness of, or otherwise amend the information provided in, a pre-effective date financing statement only in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Part 3. However, the effectiveness of a pre-effective date financing statement also may be terminated in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed.

(c) [METHOD OF AMENDING: GENERAL RULE.] Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), if the law of this state governs perfection of a security interest, the information in a pre-effective date financing statement may be amended after this act takes effect only if:

(1) the pre-effective date financing statement and an amendment are filed in the office specified in section 336.9-501;

(2) an amendment is filed in the office specified in section 336.9-501 concurrently with, or after the filing in that office of, an initial financing statement that satisfies section 336.9-706(c); or

(3) an initial financing statement that provides the information as amended and satisfies section 336.9-706(c) is filed in the office specified in section 336.9-501.

(d) [METHOD OF AMENDING: CONTINUATION.] If the law of this state governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective date financing statement may be continued only under section 336.9-705(d) and (f) or 336.9-706.

(e) [METHOD OF AMENDING: ADDITIONAL TERMINATION RULE.] Whether or not the law of this state governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective date financing statement filed in this state may be terminated after this act takes effect by filing a termination statement in the office in which the pre-effective date financing statement is filed, unless an initial financing statement that satisfies section 336.9-706(c) has been filed in the office specified by the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Part 3 as the office in which to file a financing statement."

"Sec. 139. [CENTRAL FILING SYSTEM SURCHARGE.]

The secretary of state shall impose a $12 surcharge on all filings of financing statements received and all searches performed from July 1, 2000, through June 30, 2001.

The surcharge amounts under this section must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the Uniform Commercial Code Account established in Minnesota Statutes, section 336.9-413.

Money from this surcharge is appropriated from the Uniform Commercial Code Account to the secretary of state for the purpose of constructing and maintaining the central filing system created by this act.

As of July 1, 2000, the department of finance shall allow the secretary of state to access up to the full amount of the annualized cash flow to be created by the surcharge imposed under this section.

This section expires July 1, 2001.

Sec. 140. [SATELLITE OFFICES; EXEMPT RULEMAKING.]

The secretary of state shall adopt rules governing the establishment and operation of satellite offices under Minnesota Statutes, sections 336.9-527 to 336.9-530, by July 1, 2000.

The rules are exempt from the rulemaking provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 14, but must be adopted under Minnesota Statutes, section 14.386. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 14.386, paragraph (b), the rules remain in effect until otherwise amended or repealed.

The authority to adopt rules under this section expires on the date the rules are effective. The expiration of this authority does not affect the validity of the rules adopted under it.

This section is effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 141. [REPEALER.]
