Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [117.58] [GOVERNMENT ENTRY INTO PRIVATE MARKET; INVERSE CONDEMNATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PERSON TO BRING ACTION.] A person may bring an action in district court to compel the state or a political subdivision to commence condemnation proceedings if:

(1) the state or the political subdivision determines to provide, either with its own employees or by contract, goods or services that, at the time of the determination, were provided by private persons within the jurisdiction of the state or political subdivision;

(2) the state or the political subdivision prohibits private persons from providing the goods or services within the jurisdiction or limits the number of private persons who are permitted to provide the goods or services within the jurisdiction so as to exclude a private person then providing the goods or services from continuing to do so;

(3) as a result of the action of the state or political subdivision, the person is not able to continue in business to provide substantially the same goods or services as before; and

(4) but for the state's or political subdivision's acting, the person would be able to continue to provide substantially the same goods or services in substantially the same market as before the government's actions.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION.] (a) A person may not maintain an action against the state under subdivision 1 if the person provides goods or services to the state under a contract or similar arrangement between the person and the state which sets forth the terms and conditions under which the person can provide the goods or services in the state.

(b) A person may not maintain an action against a political subdivision under subdivision 1 if the person provides goods or services to that political subdivision under a contract or similar arrangement between the person and the political subdivision which sets forth the terms and conditions under which the person can provide the goods or services in the political subdivision.

Subd. 3. [EXCLUSIONS.] This section does not apply to the provision of goods or services by MINNCORR Industries; a municipally owned sewer, electrical, water, or other utility service; or an ambulance service governed by chapter 144E.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 16

A House resolution proclaiming February 18, 2004, to be Dairy Day on the Hill.

Whereas, the dairy industry in Minnesota supports over 54,000 jobs, and is a significant economic engine in rural Minnesota; and

Whereas, the dairy industry generates almost 11 billion dollars of economic activity annually in Minnesota; and

Whereas, for every 100 dairy cows, $51,192 is generated in state and local taxes; and

Whereas, the dairy industry encourages diversity in cropping systems through hay or cover forage crops and sustainable crop rotations, and among domestic animals, cows are the most efficient converters of those crops to high quality food products; and

Whereas, the dairy industry is based on the use of renewable resources and is one of the state's most sustainable economic engines; and

Whereas, dairy farmers are a major part of our heritage; and

Whereas, the state of Minnesota recognizes the importance of the services provided by the dairy industry;
Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota that it proclaims February 18, 2004, to be Dairy Day on the Hill.

Harder moved that House Resolution No. 16 be now adopted. The motion prevailed and House Resolution No. 16 was adopted.
