A House resolution recognizing slave laborers who worked on the construction of the United States Capitol.

Whereas, the United States Capitol stands as a symbol of democracy, equality, and freedom to the entire world; and

Whereas, the year 2004 marks the 204th anniversary of the opening of this historic structure for the first session of Congress to be held in the new capital city; and

Whereas, slavery was not prohibited throughout the United States until the ratification of the 13th amendment to the Constitution in 1865; and

Whereas, prior to that date, African American slave labor was both legal and common in the District of Columbia and the adjoining states of Maryland and Virginia; and

Whereas, public records attest to the fact that African American slave labor was used in the construction of the United States Capitol; and

Whereas, public records further attest to the fact that the five-dollar-per-month payment for that African American slave labor was made directly to slave owners and not to the laborer; and

Whereas, African Americans made significant contributions and fought bravely for freedom during the American Revolutionary War; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration of the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota that it recognizes and honors the contributions of those African American slaves whose efforts helped to build the United States Capitol. It expresses its appreciation for the time, the labor, and the skills they gave to the creation of this monument to freedom, even while they were not free.

Signed: STEVE SVIGGUM, ERIK PAULSEN, LYNNE OSTERMAN, MATT ENTENZA AND KEITH ELLISON.

The resolution was adopted by the House.
