(8) for recording any plat, a fee of $50, of which $4 must be paid to the state treasury and credited to the general fund, 50 cents must be retained by the county to cover administrative costs, $10 must be deposited in the technology fund pursuant to subdivision 3, and $35.50 must be deposited in the county general fund"

Page 3, after line 31, insert:

"Sec. 2. [357.182] [COUNTY FEES AND RECORDING STANDARDS FOR THE RECORDING OF REAL ESTATE DOCUMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] Unless otherwise specified in this section and notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, effective August 1, 2005, this section applies to each county in Minnesota. Documents presented for recording within 60 days from the effective date of this act and that are acknowledged, sworn to before a notary, or certified prior to the effective date of this act must not be rejected for failure to include the new filing fee.

Subd. 2. [FEE RESTRICTIONS.] Notwithstanding any local law or ordinance to the contrary, no county may charge or collect any fee, special or otherwise, or however described, other than a fee denominated or prescribed by state law, for any service, task, or step performed by any county officer or employee in connection with the receipt, recording, and return of any recordable instrument by the county recorder or registrar of titles, whether received by mail, in person, or by electronic delivery, including, but not limited to, opening mail; handling, transferring, or transporting the instrument; certifying no delinquent property taxes; payment of state deed tax, mortgage registry tax, or conservation fee; recording of approved plats, subdivision splits, or combinations; or any other prerequisites to recording, and returning the instrument by regular mail or in person to the person identified in the instrument for that purpose.

Subd. 3. [RECORDING REQUIREMENTS.] Each county recorder and registrar of titles shall, within 15 business days after any instrument in recordable form accompanied by payment of applicable fees by customary means is delivered to the county for recording or is otherwise received by the county recorder or registrar of titles for that purpose, record and index the instrument in the manner provided by law and return it by regular mail or in person to the person identified in the instrument for that purpose, if the instrument does not require certification of no-delinquent taxes, payment of state deed tax, mortgage registry tax, or conservation fee. Each county will establish a policy for the timely handling of instruments which require certification of no-delinquent taxes, payment of state deed tax, mortgage registry tax, or conservation fee and that policy may allow up to an additional five business days at the request of the office or offices responsible to complete the payment and certification process.

For calendar years 2009 and 2010, the maximum time allowed for completion of the recording process for documents presented in recordable form will be 15 business days.

For calendar year 2011 and thereafter, the maximum time allowed for completion of the recording process for documents presented in recordable form will be ten business days.

Instruments recorded electronically are to be returned no later than five business days after receipt by the county in a recordable format.

Subd. 4. [COMPLIANCE WITH RECORDING REQUIREMENTS.] For calendar year 2007, a county shall be deemed to be in compliance with the recording requirements prescribed by subdivision 3 if at least 60 percent of all recordable instruments described in subdivision 3 and received by the county in that year are recorded and returned within the time limits prescribed in subdivision 3. In calendar year 2008, at least 70 percent of all recordable instruments must be recorded and returned in compliance with the recording requirements; for calendar year 2009, at least 80 percent of all recordable instruments must be recorded and returned in compliance with the recording requirements; and for calendar year 2010 and later years, at least 90 percent of all recordable instruments must be recorded and returned in compliance with the recording requirements.

Subd. 5. [TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF COMPLIANCE WITH RECORDING REQUIREMENTS.] Compliance with the requirements of subdivision 4 may be suspended for up to six months when a county undertakes material enhancements to its systems for receipt, handling, paying of deed and mortgage tax and conservation fees, recording, indexing, certification, and return of instruments. The six-month suspension may be extended for up to an additional six months if a county board finds by resolution that the additional time is necessary because of the difficulties of implementing the enhancement.

Subd. 6. [CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE WITH RECORDING REQUIREMENTS.] A requirement is imposed effective in 2007 for the 2008 county budget that requires the county recorder and registrar of titles for each county to file with the county commissioners, as part of their budget request, a report that establishes the status for the previous year of their compliance with the requirements established in subdivision 3. If the office has not achieved compliance with the recording requirements, the report must include an explanation of the failure to comply, recommendations by the recorder/registrar to cure the noncompliance and to prevent a reoccurrence and a proposal identifying actions, deadlines, and funding necessary for bringing the county into compliance.

Subd. 7. [RESTRICTION ON USE OF RECORDING FEES.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, effective for county budgets adopted after January 1, 2006, each county shall segregate the additional unallocated fee authorized by this act from the application of the provisions of chapters 386, 507, 508, and 508A, in an appropriate account. These funds are available as authorized by the Board of County Commissioners for supporting enhancements to the recording process, including electronic recording, to fund compliance efforts specified in subdivision 5 and for use in undertaking data integration and aggregation projects. Funds shall remain in the account until expended for any of the authorized purposes set forth in this subdivision. These funds shall not be considered as available to supplant the normal operating expenses for the office of county recorder or registrar of titles."

"Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 2004, section 505.08, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PUBLIC CERTIFIED COPIES.] The copies of the official plat or of the exact reproducible copy shall be compared and certified to by the county recorder in the manner in which certified copies of records are issued in the recorder's office, and the copy thereof shall be bound in a proper volume for the use of the general public and anyone shall have access to and may inspect such certified copy at their pleasure. When the plat includes both registered and nonregistered land two copies thereof shall be so certified and bound, one for such general public use in each of the offices of the county recorder and registrar of titles; provided, however, that only one such copy so certified and bound shall be provided for general public use in those counties wherein the office quarters of the county recorder and registrar of titles are one and the same. When the copy, or any part thereof, shall become unintelligible from use or wear or otherwise, at the request of the county recorder it shall be the duty of the county surveyor to make a reproduction copy of the official plat, or the exact transparent reproducible copy under the direct supervision of the county recorder, who shall compare the copy, certify that it is a correct copy thereof, by proper certificate as above set forth, and it shall be bound in the volume, and under the page, and in the place of the discarded copy. In counties not having a county surveyor the county recorder shall employ a licensed land surveyor to make such reproduction copy, at the expense of the county. The county recorder shall receive as a fee for filing these plats, as aforesaid described, ~~50 cents per lot, but shall receive not less than $30 for any plat filed in the recorder's office pursuant to section 357.18, subdivision 1.~~ Reproductions from the exact transparent reproducible copy shall be available to any person upon request and the cost of such reproductions shall be paid by the person making such request. If a copy of the official plat is requested the county recorder shall prepare it and duly certify that it is a copy of the official plat and the cost of such copy shall be paid by the person making such request."
