"Sec. 2. [129C.105] [BOARD MEETINGS BY TELEPHONE OR OTHER ELECTRONIC MEANS.]

(a) Notwithstanding section 13D.01 and if complying with section 13D.02 is impractical, the board for the Perpich Center for Arts Education may conduct a meeting of its members by telephone or other electronic means so long as the following conditions are met:

(1) all members of the board participating in the meeting, wherever their physical location, can hear one another and all discussion and testimony;

(2) members of the public present at the regular meeting location of the board can hear all discussion and testimony and all votes of members of the board;

(3) at least one member of the board is physically present at the regular meeting location; and

(4) all votes are conducted by roll call, so each member's vote on each issue can be identified and recorded.

(b) Each member of the board participating in a meeting by telephone or other electronic means is considered present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum and participating in all proceedings.

(c) If telephone or other electronic means is used to conduct a meeting, the board, to the extent practical, shall allow a person to monitor the meeting electronically from a remote location. The board may require the person making such a connection to pay for documented marginal costs that the board incurs as a result of the additional connection.

(d) If telephone or other electronic means is used to conduct a regular, special, or emergency meeting, the board shall provide notice of the regular meeting location, of the fact that some members may participate by telephone or other electronic means, and of the provisions of paragraph (c). The timing and method of providing notice is governed by section 13D.04.

[EFFECTIVE DATE.] This section is effective the day following final enactment."

Subd. 3. [SPONSOR.] (a) A school board; intermediate school district school board; education district organized under sections 123A.15 to 123A.19; charitable organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 that is a member of the Minnesota Council of Nonprofits or the Minnesota Council on Foundations, registered with the attorney general's office, and reports an end-of-year fund balance of at least $2,000,000; Minnesota private college that grants two- or four-year degrees and is registered with the Higher Education Services Office under chapter 136A; community college, state university, or technical college, governed by the Board of Trustees of the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities; or the University of Minnesota may sponsor one or more charter schools.

(b) A nonprofit corporation subject to chapter 317A, described in section 317A.905, and exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, may sponsor one or more charter schools if the charter school has operated for at least three years under a different sponsor and if the nonprofit corporation has existed for at least 25 years.

(c) The commissioner of education may approve up to five charitable organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 that sponsor charter schools as their principle charitable purpose. Eligible charitable organizations interested in being approved as a sponsor under this paragraph must submit a proposal to the commissioner that includes:

- (1) the articles, bylaws, and initial membership of the charitable organization's board of directors;
- (2) financial information consistent with section 309.53, subdivision 3;
- (3) a description of how the charitable organization plans to realize its principle charitable purpose; and
- (4) other information requested by the commissioner.

A charitable organization that is approved as a sponsor under this paragraph annually must report to the commissioner in the form and manner the commissioner determines. The report must describe the charter schools authorized by the charitable organization, the effectiveness of those charter schools in promoting student achievement, and the governance structure of those charter schools, and also must include other information requested by the commissioner. An approved charitable organization may sponsor one or more charter schools. The commissioner may withdraw the approval of a charitable organization to sponsor a charter school under this paragraph if the commissioner determines that the charitable organization fails to meet generally accepted standards of fiscal management, violates the law, or shows other good cause. The commissioner's determination is final. When the commissioner withdraws the approval of a charitable organization to sponsor a charter school, the commissioner may approve the decision of a different eligible sponsor to authorize the charter school or may apply subdivision 24 governing student enrollment when a charter school contract is not renewed or terminated.
