Subd. 2. Nonresident notaries. (a) The governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, may appoint as notary public a person who is not a resident of this state if:

(1) the person is a resident of Wisconsin, Iowa, North Dakota, or South Dakota, ~~and of a county that shares a boundary with this state;~~

(2) the person designates the secretary of state as agent for the service of process for all purposes relating to notarial acts and for receipt of all correspondence relating to notarial acts; and

(3) the person designates the Minnesota county in which the person's notary commission will be recorded pursuant to section 359.061.

(b) The secretary of state shall receive applications for nonresident notary appointments and commissions, shall keep a register of those persons appointed and commissioned as notaries public by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate, shall update that register when informed of a change in name and address by a notary public, shall process applications by a notary public for reappointment, shall receive fees for the performance of these functions to be deposited into the general fund, and shall perform those clerical and administrative duties associated with these functions. The governor may also receive such applications directly.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 2009 Supplement, section 359.01, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Fees. (a) When making application for a commission the applicant must submit, along with the information required by the secretary of state, a nonrefundable fee of ~~$40~~ $120, which shall be forwarded by the secretary of state to the commissioner of management and budget to be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (a), all fees shall be retained by the secretary of state and are nonreturnable, except for an overpayment of a fee.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 2008, section 359.02, is amended to read:

359.02 TERM.

A notary commissioned under section 359.01 holds office ~~for five years until January 31 of the fifth year following the year the commission was issued,~~ unless sooner removed by the governor or the district court, or by action of the commissioner of commerce. ~~Within 60 days~~ Six months before the expiration of the commission, a notary may ~~apply for reappointment~~ renew the notary's commission for a new term to commence and to be designated in the new commission as beginning upon the day immediately following the date of the expiration. A notary whose commission expires ~~on January 1, 2005,~~ may apply for reappointment ~~six months before~~ after the expiration date. The reappointment or renewal takes effect and is valid although the appointing governor may not be in the Office of Governor on the effective day.

~~All notary commissions expire on January 31 of the fifth year following the year of issue.~~

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 2008, section 359.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Requirement. Every notary, including an ex officio notary under section 358.15, shall ~~get~~ obtain an official ~~seal~~ notarial stamp as specified in subdivision 3, with which to authenticate official acts, ~~and upon which shall be engraved the arms of this state, the words "notarial seal."~~ The ~~seal,~~ with official notarial stamp, and the notary's official register, is journal, are the personal property of the notary and are exempt from execution, ~~and, on death or removal from office, the register must be deposited with the court administrator of the district court of the notary's county.~~

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2009 Supplement, section 117.189, is amended to read:

117.189 PUBLIC SERVICE CORPORATION EXCEPTIONS.

Sections 117.031; 117.036; 117.055, subdivision 2, paragraph (b); 117.186; 117.187; 117.188; and 117.52, subdivisions 1a and 4, do not apply to the use of eminent domain authority by public service corporations; for any purpose other than construction or expansion of:

(1) a high-voltage transmission line of 100 kilovolts or more, or ancillary substations; or

(2) a natural gas, petroleum, or petroleum products pipeline, or ancillary compressor stations or pumping stations.

For purposes of an award of appraisal fees under section 117.085, the fees awarded may not exceed $1,500 for all types of property except for a public service corporation's use of eminent domain for a high-voltage transmission line, where the award may not exceed $3,000.

For purposes of this section, "pipeline" does not include a natural gas distribution line transporting natural gas to an end user.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment and applies to eminent domain proceedings or actions commenced on or after that date. "Commenced" means when service of notice of the petition under Minnesota Statutes, section 117.055, is made.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2008, section 117.225, is amended to read:

117.225 EASEMENT DISCHARGE.

Whenever claiming that an easement acquired by condemnation is not being used for the purposes for which it was acquired, the underlying fee owner may apply to the district court of the county in which the land is situated for an order discharging the easement, upon such terms as are just and equitable. Due notice of said application shall be given to all interested parties. Provided, however, this section shall not apply to easements acquired by condemnation by a public service corporation now or hereafter doing business in the state of Minnesota- for any purpose other than construction or expansion of:

(1) a high-voltage transmission line of 100 kilovolts or more, including ancillary substations; or

(2) a natural gas, petroleum, or petroleum products pipeline, including ancillary compressor stations or pumping stations.

For purposes of this section, "pipeline" does not include a natural gas distribution line transporting natural gas to an end user.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment and applies to eminent domain proceedings or actions commenced on or after that date. "Commenced" means when service of notice of the petition under Minnesota Statutes, section 117.055, is made.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 2008, section 216E.03, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. Considerations in designating sites and routes. (a) The commission's site and route permit determinations must be guided by the state's goals to conserve resources, minimize environmental impacts, minimize human settlement and other land use conflicts, and ensure the state's electric energy security through efficient, cost-effective power supply and electric transmission infrastructure.

(b) To facilitate the study, research, evaluation, and designation of sites and routes, the commission shall be guided by, but not limited to, the following considerations:

(1) evaluation of research and investigations relating to the effects on land, water and air resources of large electric power generating plants and high-voltage transmission lines and the effects of water and air discharges and electric and magnetic fields resulting from such facilities on public health and welfare, vegetation, animals, materials and aesthetic values, including baseline studies, predictive modeling, and evaluation of new or improved methods for minimizing adverse impacts of water and air discharges and other matters pertaining to the effects of power plants on the water and air environment;

(2) environmental evaluation of sites and routes proposed for future development and expansion and their relationship to the land, water, air and human resources of the state;

(3) evaluation of the effects of new electric power generation and transmission technologies and systems related to power plants designed to minimize adverse environmental effects;

(4) evaluation of the potential for beneficial uses of waste energy from proposed large electric power generating plants;

(5) analysis of the direct and indirect economic impact of proposed sites and routes including, but not limited to, productive agricultural land lost or impaired;

(6) evaluation of adverse direct and indirect environmental effects that cannot be avoided should the proposed site and route be accepted;

(7) evaluation of alternatives to the applicant's proposed site or route proposed pursuant to subdivisions 1 and 2;

(8) evaluation of potential routes that would use or parallel existing railroad and highway rights-of-way;

(9) evaluation of governmental survey lines and other natural division lines of agricultural land so as to minimize interference with agricultural operations;

(10) evaluation of the future needs for additional high-voltage transmission lines in the same general area as any proposed route, and the advisability of ordering the construction of structures capable of expansion in transmission capacity through multiple circuiting or design modifications;

(11) evaluation of irreversible and irretrievable commitments of resources should the proposed site or route be approved; and

(12) when appropriate, consideration of problems raised by other state and federal agencies and local entities.

(c) If the commission's rules are substantially similar to existing regulations of a federal agency to which the utility in the state is subject, the federal regulations must be applied by the commission.

(d) No site or route shall be designated which violates state agency rules.

(e) In issuing a route permit for a high-voltage transmission line, the commission shall, consistent with the safe and efficient operation of transportation systems, give priority consideration to utilizing existing utility, highway, publicly owned railway corridors. The term corridor means land in or in reasonable proximity to an existing utility, publicly owned railway or highway easement or right-of-way. The commission shall also give consideration to placing high-voltage transmission lines underground to the maximum extent feasible."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2008, section 580.021, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Notification to authorized counseling agency. The party entitled to foreclose shall, within one week ~~of~~ after sending the notice prescribed in section 580.022, provide ~~to the appropriate authorized foreclosure prevention agency~~ the following information to the appropriate authorized foreclosure prevention agency in a nonproprietary database or spreadsheet format, when available in that format. Electronic transmittal of the database must occur by secure e-mail which is encrypted by the sender to prevent persons other than the intended recipient from reading its content, unless the party entitled to foreclose does not have the capability to send via secure e-mail or in a nonproprietary database or spreadsheet format, in which case it must be sent by regular mail. The information must include the mortgagor's name, mailing address, and most recent known daytime and evening telephone number numbers, any known e-mail address, and the address of the property at risk of foreclosure if different from mortgagor's mailing address.

In the same communication, the mortgagee shall also provide the name and contact information of the agent of the mortgagee authorized to discuss and negotiate resolution of the default. The mortgagee contact information must include the agent's name, mail and e-mail addresses, and direct phone and fax numbers. The contact information must also include the name, direct phone number, and e-mail address of the loss mitigation department manager or in the absence of a loss mitigation department, an individual authorized to discuss workout options. The agent must be an individual authorized by the mortgagee to:

- (1) discuss the terms of the mortgage with the authorized foreclosure prevention agency or the mortgagor; and
- (2) negotiate any resolution of the mortgagor's default.

Nothing in this subdivision requires a mortgagee to reach a resolution relating to the mortgagor's default. Failure to provide all the data required by this section or to provide the data in database or spreadsheet format, or by secure e-mail or otherwise, does not invalidate the sale; provided the mortgagee makes a good faith effort to provide the data, or makes a bona fide error.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2010, and applies to foreclosures in which the notice required under Minnesota Statutes, section 580.021, subdivision 2, is provided on or after that date.

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Dean moved to amend S. F. No. 2168, the unofficial engrossment, as amended, as follows:

"Sec. 20. [256L.121] HEALTH CARE HOME PROGRAM FOR CERTAIN SINGLE ADULTS AND HOUSEHOLDS WITHOUT CHILDREN.

Subdivision 1. Establishment; contract with commissioner. (a) The commissioner shall develop and implement, by January 1, 2012, a county-based, health care home program for those individuals identified by the commissioner under section 256D.03, subdivision 3c, as being more effectively served under modified MinnesotaCare coverage for single adults and households without children.

(b) Participation by counties or groups of counties in the program is voluntary and subject to approval by, and entering into a contract with, the commissioner. Contract requirements must include:

(1) criteria and procedures for county participation in, and withdrawal from, the health care home program;

(2) care coordination, quality of care, and other requirements for participating health care homes, and county oversight requirements for health care homes;

(3) consumer protection, provider protection, and fiscal solvency standards; and

(4) procedures for addressing fiscal insolvency of county health care home programs and ensuring continuity of care.

Subd. 2. County requirements related to health care homes. Each county participating in the health care home program shall contract with providers certified as health care homes under section 256B.0751 to provide services to MinnesotaCare enrollees meeting the criteria developed by the commissioner under section 256D.03, subdivision 3c. Each participating county shall require enrollees residing in the county to designate as a health care home a provider certified under section 256B.0751 and shall assign enrollees who do not make a designation to a health care home.

Subd. 3. County payment. The commissioner shall pay counties that are providing health care under this section a per capita payment for all MinnesotaCare enrollees that does not exceed the payment that would otherwise be paid to a managed care plan under section 256L.12. A county is not required to obtain a certificate of authority under chapter 62D, but must meet consumer protection, provider protection, and fiscal solvency standards established by the commissioner. The state and the commissioner shall not be liable for any costs incurred by a county that exceed the payments to the county made under this section.

Subd. 4. Nonparticipating counties. The commissioner shall continue to provide MinnesotaCare services using managed care and county-based purchasing plans under sections 256B.69 and 256B.692 in counties that choose not to participate in, or withdraw from, the health care program.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 2008, section 256L.15, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Exception for transitioned certain adults. (a) County agencies shall pay the enrollee share of premiums for: (1) single adults and households with no children formerly enrolled in general assistance medical care and enrolled in MinnesotaCare according to section 256D.03, subdivision 3, until six month renewal. The county agency has the option of continuing to pay premiums for these enrollees; and (2) single adults and households without children enrolled under section 256L.04, subdivision 7, with gross family incomes not exceeding 75 percent of the federal poverty guidelines.

(b) Counties that do not participate in the health care program established under section 256L.121 shall pay both the enrollee and state share of MinnesotaCare premiums for individuals meeting the criteria developed for modified MinnesotaCare coverage by the commissioner under section 256D.03, subdivision 3c.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2011."

"Sec. 25. [256L.29] MINNESOTACARE MODERN BENEFIT PILOT PLAN.

Subdivision 1. Eligibility. Beginning January 1, 2012, or upon federal approval, and approval of the commissioners of health and human services, the commissioners shall make available to up to 1000 adults who qualify for MinnesotaCare under section 256L.04, subdivision 1, with family gross income that exceeds 133 percent of the federal poverty guidelines, and who are not pregnant, may voluntarily enroll in the MinnesotaCare modern benefit plan as described in this section. All provisions of sections 256L.01 to 256L.18 shall continue to apply to adults enrolled in the MinnesotaCare modern benefit plan unless otherwise specified.

Subd. 2. Covered services; deductible; co-payments. The MinnesotaCare modern benefit plan shall include all covered services and co-payments under section 256L.03. In addition to the enrollee cost sharing described in section 256L.03, subdivision 5, adults enrolled in the MinnesotaCare modern benefit plan shall be subject to a $..... annual deductible each calendar year. All covered services and co-payments described in this section are subject to the enrollee's annual deductible. Enrollees may use their health savings account (HSA) described in subdivision 4, to pay for covered services and co-payments.

Subd. 3. Enrollment. (a) Adults who qualify for the MinnesotaCare modern benefit plan may enroll during an annual open enrollment period. MinnesotaCare modern benefits will begin each year on January 1, following the open enrollment period.

(b) Adults enrolled in the MinnesotaCare modern benefit plan who are disenrolled from the MinnesotaCare program and then reapply, may not enroll in the MinnesotaCare modern benefit plan until the next annual open enrollment period. Upon disenrollment, any unused funds in the enrollee's HSA under subdivision 4 will not roll over to the next calendar year.

Subd. 4. MinnesotaCare modern health savings accounts (HSAs). Beginning January 1, 2012, or upon federal approval, the commissioner shall establish a health savings account (HSA) for each adult enrolled in the MinnesotaCare modern benefit plan. The HSA shall be available to the enrollee to pay for covered services and co-payments described under subdivision 2, up to the amount of the annual deductible. The state shall contribute $..... per calendar year to each enrollee's HSA to pay for covered services and co-payments. Any funds that remain in an enrollee's HSA at the end of a calendar year shall be available to the enrollee the following calendar year. Enrollees are responsible for costs of health services incurred in excess of the state's contribution up to the amount of the annual deductible.

Subd. 5. Premium discount for MinnesotaCare modern enrollees. Beginning January 1, 2012, or upon federal approval, each adult enrolled in the MinnesotaCare modern benefit plan shall qualify for a monthly premium discount of $..... The discount shall be applied to the family premium determined according to section 256L.15, subdivision 2, beginning with the premium for the first month of coverage under the MinnesotaCare modern plan."

"Sec. 15. [256D.033] ABORTION NOT COVERED.

Subdivision 1. Abortion not covered. No public funds shall be used for coverage of abortion under general assistance medical care except where the life of the female would be endangered or serious risk of substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function would result if the fetus were carried to term; or where the pregnancy is the result of rape or incest. This section applies to both the general assistance medical care program in section 256D.03 and the temporary general assistance medical care program in section 256D.031.

Subd. 2. Severability. If any one or more provision, section, subdivision, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this section or the application of it to any person or circumstance is found to be unconstitutional, it is declared to be severable and the balance of this section shall remain effective notwithstanding such unconstitutionality. The legislature intends that it would have passed this section, and each provision, section, subdivision, sentence, clause, phrase, or word irrespective of the fact that any one provision, section, subdivision, sentence, clause, phrase, or word is declared unconstitutional.

Subd. 3. Supreme Court jurisdiction. The Minnesota Supreme Court has original jurisdiction over an action challenging the constitutionality of this section and shall expedite the resolution of the action."
