SUSPENSION OF RULES

Sertich moved that the rules be so far suspended that House Resolution No. 7 be now considered and be placed upon its adoption. The motion prevailed.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 7

A House resolution designating March 1, 2010, as "Canada Day at the Capitol."

Whereas, the United States and Canada share not only a 5,500-mile border, which is the world's longest unmilitarized border, but also common ideals and democratic principles; and

Whereas, the relationship between Canada and the United States is unique in the world, and the two countries have a shared prosperity fostered by two-way investment and jobs; and

Whereas, relations between Canada and the United States span more than two centuries, and the two countries have developed one of the most successful international relationships in the modern world; and

Whereas, Canada and the United States have the largest and most comprehensive trade relationship in the world; and

Whereas, the relationship between Canada and Minnesota is equally strong, combining a complex and growing network of social, economic, and even familial ties; and

Whereas, 7.1 million American jobs were dependent on trade with Canada in 2007, including over 141,000 jobs in Minnesota; and

Whereas, the United States is Canada's largest export market, with the United States importing $339 billion in goods from Canada in 2008; and

Whereas, some of Canada's top imported goods from the United States include vehicles, reactors and boilers, electrical machinery, fuels and oils, plastic, optical and medical instruments, aircraft, iron, steel, fruits and nuts, baking-related goods, vegetables, beef, pork, and poultry; and

Whereas, the United States and Canada also have a very special and important military and defense relationship with one another; and

Whereas, Canada and the United States are both members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) and our forces have fought alongside each other in most major conflicts since World War II, including the Korean War, the Gulf War, the Kosovo War, and, most recently, the war in Afghanistan; and

Whereas, since September 11, 2001, our strong military relationship with Canada has helped to keep the United States safe from further terrorist attacks, and Canada is now, more than ever, a key military ally of the United States; and

Whereas, 2010 marks the 40th anniversary of the establishment of Canada's Consulate General in Minnesota; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota that it welcomes Consul General Martin Loken and designates March 1, 2010, as "Canada Day at the Capitol."

Be It Further Resolved that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to prepare an enrolled copy of this resolution, to be authenticated by his signature and that of the Speaker, and transmit it to Consul General Martin Loken.

Sertich moved that House Resolution No. 7 be now adopted. The motion prevailed and House Resolution No. 7 was adopted.

Sertich moved that the House recess subject to the call of the Chair. The motion prevailed.

RECESS

The House of Representatives and the Senate met in a Joint Meeting to hear an address by the Canadian Consul General Martin Loken.

RECONVENED

The House reconvened and was called to order by the Speaker.
