Subd. 2. Disclosure; court reporter requirements; objections. (a) The existence of a contract or agreement for court reporting services must be disclosed as provided by this paragraph. Written notice of a contract or agreement must be (1) included in the notice of taking deposition or the notice of legal proceeding before commencement of a legal proceeding at which court reporting services are being provided. ~~Oral, and (2) disclosure of a contract or agreement~~ the fee schedule must be made on part of the record by the court reporter at the commencement of the legal proceeding by the person providing the notice of the deposition.

(b) A freelance court reporter and court reporting firm:

(1) shall treat all parties to an action equally, providing comparable services and charging equal fees to all parties except that fees may be waived or reduced to low-income parties;

(2) may not act as an advocate for any party or act partially to any party to an action; and

(3) shall comply with all state and federal court rules that govern the activities of court reporters.

(c) An attorney shall state the reason for the objection to the provision of court reporting services by a freelance court reporter or court reporting firm and shall note the objection and the reason on the record.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2014, and applies to legal proceedings commencing on or after that date.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 486.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Remedies. ~~Through objection by a party to the proceedings and~~ upon the court's or presiding officer's ~~learning determination~~ of a violation of subdivision 2, paragraph (a), the court or presiding officer may: (1) declare that the record for which the court reporting services were provided is void and may order that the legal proceeding be reconducted; or (2) ~~impose sanctions against the party violating subdivision 2, paragraph (a), including civil contempt of court, costs, and reasonable attorney fees resulting from the violation.~~ If the legal proceedings are reconducted, the parties who ~~violate~~ violated subdivision 2, paragraph (a), are jointly and severally liable for costs associated with reconducting the legal proceeding and preparing the new record. Costs include, but are not limited to, attorney, witness, and freelance court reporter appearance and transcript fees.
