"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 169.791, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Requirement for driver, whether or not owner. (a) Every driver shall have in possession at all times when operating a vehicle and shall produce on demand of a peace officer proof of insurance in force at the time of the demand covering the vehicle being operated. If the driver does not produce the required proof of insurance upon the demand of a peace officer, the driver is guilty of a misdemeanor. A person is guilty of a gross misdemeanor who violates this section within ten years of the first of two prior convictions under this section, section 169.797, or a statute or ordinance in conformity with one of those sections. The same prosecuting authority who is responsible for prosecuting misdemeanor violations of this section is responsible for prosecuting gross misdemeanor violations of this section. A driver who is not the owner of the vehicle may not be convicted under this section unless the driver knew or had reason to know that the owner did not have proof of insurance required by this section, provided that the driver provides the officer with the name and address of the owner at the time of the demand or complies with subdivision 3.

(b) The use of an electronic device to display proof of insurance does not constitute consent for a peace officer to access other contents of the electronic device.

(c) If a person uses an electronic device to display proof of insurance, a peace officer is immune from liability for any damage to the device, unless the peace officer does not exercise due care in handling the device.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment."

H. F. No. 323, A bill for an act relating to employment; modifying payment of wages and payroll and payroll deductions; amending Minnesota Statutes 2014, sections 181.06, subdivision 2; 181.101.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 181.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Payroll deductions. A written contract may be entered into between an employer and an employee wherein the employee authorizes the employer to make payroll deductions for the purpose of paying union dues, premiums of any life insurance, hospitalization and surgical insurance, group accident and health insurance, group term life insurance, group annuities or contributions to credit unions or a community chest fund, a local arts council, a local science council or a local arts and science council, or Minnesota benefit association, a federally or state registered political action committee, membership dues of a relief association governed by sections 424A.091 to 424A.096 or Laws 2013, chapter 111, article 5, sections 31 to 42, or participation in any employee stock purchase plan or savings plan for periods longer than 60 days, including gopher state bonds established under section 16A.645.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2015.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 181.101, is amended to read:

181.101 WAGES; HOW OFTEN PAID.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), every employer must pay all wages earned by an employee at least once every 31 days on a regular payday designated in advance by the employer regardless of whether the employee requests payment at longer intervals. Unless paid earlier, the wages earned during the first half of the first 31-day pay period become due on the first regular payday following the first day of work. If wages earned are not paid, the commissioner of labor and industry or the commissioner's representative may demand payment on behalf of an employee. If payment is not made within ten days of demand, the commissioner may charge and collect the wages earned and a penalty in the amount of the employee's average daily earnings at the rate agreed upon in the contract of employment, not exceeding 15 days in all, for each day beyond the ten-day limit following the demand. Money collected by the commissioner must be paid to the employee concerned. This section does not prevent an employee from prosecuting a claim for wages. This section does not prevent a school district, other public school entity, or other school, as defined under section 120A.22, from paying any wages earned by its employees during a school year on regular paydays in the manner provided by an applicable contract or collective bargaining agreement, or a personnel policy adopted by the governing board. For purposes of this section, "employee" includes a person who performs agricultural labor as defined in section 181.85, subdivision 2. For purposes of this section, wages are earned on the day an employee works.

(b) An employer of a volunteer firefighter, as defined in section 424A.001, subdivision 10, or a volunteer ambulance driver or attendant, must pay all wages earned by the volunteer firefighter or volunteer ambulance driver or attendant at least once every 31 days, unless the employer and the employee mutually agree upon payment at longer intervals.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment."

COMMUNICATION FROM THE JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE FOR CANDIDATES FOR VACANCIES ON THE BOARD OF REGENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

March 3, 2015

Dear Speaker Daudt, Majority Leader Bakk, and Minority Leaders Thissen and Hann:

Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 137.0246, subdivision 2 and Joint Rule of the Senate and House 4.01, the Joint Legislative Committee met on February 10, 2015 to consider candidates for vacancies on the University of Minnesota Board of Regents.

The Joint Legislative Committee allowed all candidates who were recommended by the Regent Candidate Advisory Council, as well as candidates nominated during the Joint Committee, an opportunity to address the Joint Committee and respond to questions.

A report was received from the Third Congressional Caucus that the caucus voted to select Darrin Rosha as their recommended nominee for the vacancy.

A report was received from the Fourth Congressional Caucus that the caucus voted to select Richard Beeson as their recommended nominee for the vacancy.

A report was received from the Sixth Congressional Caucus that the caucus voted to select Michael Hsu as their recommended nominee for the vacancy.

After hearing from all candidates, the Joint Legislative Committee voted according to the joint rules of procedure. Based on a majority vote of the House members and a majority vote of the Senate members of the Joint Legislative Committee, we respectfully recommend the following names to the Joint Convention:

First Congressional District: Patricia Simmons and Randy Simonson;
Third Congressional District: Michael Belzer and Paula Prah;
Fourth Congressional District: Richard Beeson;
Sixth Congressional District: Michael Hsu; and
