- (3) demonstrate an ability to repay the loan; and
- (4) have received at least ~~50~~ 20 percent of ~~average~~ annual gross income from farming ~~for in~~ the past ~~three years~~ year.

Sec. 2. APPROPRIATION; DROUGHT RELIEF.

Subdivision 1. Appropriation. $5,100,000 in fiscal year 2022 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture to provide grants and other forms of financial assistance to livestock farmers and specialty crop producers impacted by drought in 2021. This appropriation includes $100,000 to reimburse livestock farmers up to $6 per loaded mile for drought-related expenses incurred to transport hay or forage up to 25 miles to the farm. For purposes of this section, "specialty crop" means an eligible crop under the United States Department of Agriculture's specialty crop block grant program. The commissioner may issue noncompetitive payments of up to $10,000 per eligible livestock farmer or specialty crop producer to reimburse drought-related expenses incurred by the farmer or producer between April 1, 2021, and May 1, 2022. The commissioner must accept applications under this section for at least five business days and, notwithstanding subdivision 2, if total applications exceed $5,000,000, the commissioner must award payments to eligible applicants at random until the funding is exhausted. The commissioner may use up to 6.5 percent of this appropriation for administration. This is a onetime appropriation and is available until June 30, 2024.

Subd. 2. Preference; drought severity. When awarding grants and other financial assistance under this section, the commissioner must give preference to eligible farmers and producers who farm in counties designated in whole or in part as D4, exceptional drought, on any of the weekly maps published during 2021 by the National Drought Mitigation Center at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. After all eligible D4 applications have been paid, the commissioner must give preference to eligible farmers and producers who farm in counties designated in whole or in part as D3 or D2 during 2021. If total applications exceed the funding available for eligible farmers and producers in a given drought classification, the commissioner must award payments at random.

Subd. 3. Allocations. Of the amount appropriated in subdivision 1, $1,000,000 is reserved for eligible livestock farmers, $1,000,000 is reserved for eligible specialty crop producers, and $500,000 is reserved for eligible livestock farmers or specialty crop producers who are also farmers' market vendors. The commissioner may reallocate money reserved under this subdivision based on demand and may award unreserved money to any eligible livestock farmer or specialty crop producer.

Subd. 4. Outreach required. The commissioner must provide outreach to emerging farmers through the Department of Agriculture Office of Emerging Farmers.

Sec. 3. TRANSFER; RURAL FINANCE AUTHORITY.

$5,000,000 in fiscal year 2022 is transferred from the general fund to the Rural Finance Authority Revolving Loan account established under Minnesota Statutes, section 41B.06, with priority given to drought relief loans under Minnesota Statutes, section 41B.047.

Sec. 4. EFFECTIVE DATE.

This act is effective the day following final enactment."
