"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 171.12, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Application and record, when destroyed. The department may cause applications for drivers' licenses, provisional licenses, and instruction permits, and related records, to be destroyed immediately after the period for which issued, except that:

(1) the driver's record pertaining to revocations, suspensions, cancellations, disqualifications, convictions, and accidents is cumulative and must be kept for a period of at least five years;

(2) the driver's record pertaining to violations of a driver or vehicle out-of-service order must be kept for a period of at least ten years;

(3) medical certificates and medical waivers submitted in accordance with section 171.162 must be kept for a period of at least three years from the date of issuance; ~~and~~

(4) the driver's record pertaining to felony convictions in the commission of which a motor vehicle was used, to the alcohol-related offenses and licensing actions listed in section 169A.03, subdivisions 20 and 21, to violations of section 169.09, to violations of section 169A.31, and to violations of section 171.24, subdivision 5, must be retained permanently; ~~and~~

(5) notwithstanding section 138.17, a document related to demonstration of identity in the application for a noncompliant driver's license or identification card must be destroyed no later than 14 days following acceptance of the validity by the commissioner of the document except in conformance with federal requirements governing retention of the document."

Page 10, line 19, before the period, insert "and may not disseminate any information protected under subdivision 11 except for the purpose of administering elections or as permitted in section 201.13, subdivision 3, paragraph (d)"

"Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 171.12, subdivision 7b, is amended to read:

Subd. 7b. Data privacy; noncompliant license or identification card. (a) With respect to noncompliant licenses or identification cards, the commissioner is prohibited from:

(1) electronically disseminating outside the state data that is not disseminated as of May 19, 2017; or

(2) utilizing any electronic validation or verification system accessible from or maintained outside the state that is not in use as of May 19, 2017.

(b) The limitations in paragraph (a) do not apply to the extent necessary to: (1) maintain compliance with the driver's license compact under section 171.50 and applicable federal law governing commercial driver's licenses; and (2) perform identity verification as part of an application for a replacement Social Security card issued by the Social Security Administration.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, "outside the state" includes federal agencies, states other than Minnesota, organizations operating under agreement among the states, and private entities.

(d) Prior to disclosing to a person, other than the data subject, any data on individuals relating to a noncompliant driver's license or identification card, the commissioner or a driver's license agent must require the person requesting the data to certify that the person must not use the data for civil immigration purposes or disclose the data to a government agency or entity that primarily enforces immigration law or to any employee or agent of any such government agency or entity. A person who violates the certification required in this paragraph may be liable in a civil action brought under section 13.08 and may be subject to criminal penalties under section 13.09. A certification form used by the commissioner or a driver's license agent under this paragraph must include information about penalties that apply for violations."

Page 10, delete section 4 and insert:

"Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 171.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. Certain data on noncompliant license or identification card; department and agents. (a) Other than within the division of the department that administers driver licensing and to the secretary of state for purposes of improving the accuracy of voter registration records under subdivision 7a, with respect to a noncompliant driver's license or identification card, the commissioner must not share or disseminate any data on individuals that indicate or otherwise have the effect of identifying (1) whether or not an individual has demonstrated United States citizenship, or (2) whether or not an individual has demonstrated lawful presence in the United States.

(b) Other than to the division of the department that administers driver licensing, with respect to a noncompliant driver's license or identification card, a driver's license agent must not share or disseminate any data on individuals that indicate or otherwise have the effect of identifying (1) whether or not an individual has demonstrated United States citizenship, or (2) whether or not an individual has demonstrated lawful presence in the United States.

(c) Data under paragraphs (a) and (b) include but are not limited to information related to:

(1) any documents specified under section 171.06, subdivision 9, 10, or 11, or submission of the documents;

(2) application, issuance, or denial of the license or identification card; and

(3) all of the following: name, address, telephone number, photograph or electronically produced image, Social Security number, client identification number, place of birth, country of origin, place of employment, school or educational institution attended, source of income, status as a recipient of public benefits, customer identification number associated with a public utilities account, medical information, and disability information.

(d) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, this subdivision prohibits the commissioner and a driver's license agent from sharing or disseminating the data described in paragraphs (a) to (c) with any:

(1) entity otherwise authorized to obtain data under subdivision 7;

(2) federal agency or entity, including but not limited to United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement in the United States Department of Homeland Security, United States Customs and Border Protection in the United States Department of Homeland Security, and any other agency that primarily enforces immigration law;

(3) state agency as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 17, except that a driver's license agent may share or disseminate data to the division of the department that administers driver licensing as authorized in paragraph (b), and except for the secretary of state as authorized in paragraph (a); or

(4) political subdivision.

(e) Violation of this subdivision by the commissioner, a driver's license agent, or an employee or agent thereof constitutes a violation of the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act and may be subject to penalties and remedies applicable under that chapter."

Stephenson from the Committee on Commerce Finance and Policy to which was referred:

H. F. No. 6, A bill for an act relating to consumer protection; prohibiting price gouging; prescribing penalties; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 325E.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [325E.80] ABNORMAL MARKET DISRUPTIONS; UNCONSCIONABLY EXCESSIVE PRICES.

Subdivision 1. Definitions. (a) For purposes of this section, the terms in this subdivision have the meanings given.

(b) "Essential consumer good or service" means a good or service that is vital and necessary for the health, safety, and welfare of the public, including without limitation: food; water; fuel; gasoline; shelter; transportation; health care services; pharmaceuticals; and medical, personal hygiene, sanitation, and cleaning supplies.

(c) "Seller" means a manufacturer, supplier, wholesaler, distributor, or retail seller of goods and services.

(d) "Unconscionably excessive price" means a price that represents a gross disparity compared to the seller's average price of an essential good or service, offered for sale or sold in the usual course of business, in the 60-day period before an abnormal market disruption is declared under subdivision 2. None of the following is an unconscionably excessive price:

(1) a price that is substantially related to an increase in the cost of manufacturing, obtaining, replacing, providing, or selling a good or service;

(2) a price that is no more than 25 percent above the seller's average price during the 60-day period before an abnormal market disruption is declared under subdivision 2;

(3) a price that is consistent with the fluctuations in applicable commodity markets or seasonal fluctuations; or

(4) a contract price, or the results of a price formula, that was established before an abnormal market disruption is declared under subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. Abnormal market disruption. (a) The governor may by executive order declare an abnormal market disruption if there is a substantial and atypical change in the market for an essential consumer good or service caused by an event that results in a declaration of a state of emergency by the governor.

(b) The governor's abnormal market disruption declaration must state that the declaration is activating this section and must specify the geographic area of Minnesota to which the declaration applies.

(c) A declaration under this subdivision terminates 30 days after the date that the state of emergency for which it was activated ends.

Subd. 3. Notice. Upon the implementation, renewal, limitation, or termination of an abnormal market disruption declaration made under subdivision 2: (1) the governor must immediately post notice on applicable government websites and provide notice to the media; and (2) the commissioner of commerce must provide notice directly to sellers by any practical means.

Subd. 4. Prohibition. If the governor declares an abnormal market disruption, a person is prohibited from selling or offering to sell an essential consumer good or service for an amount that represents an unconscionably excessive price during the period in which the abnormal market disruption declaration is effective.

Subd. 5. Civil penalty. A person who is found to have violated this section is subject to a civil penalty of not more than $1,000 per sale or transaction, with a maximum penalty of $25,000 per day. No other penalties may be imposed for the same conduct regulated under this section.

Subd. 6. Enforcement authority. (a) The attorney general may investigate and bring an action against a seller for an alleged violation of this section.

(b) Nothing in this section creates a private cause of action in favor of a person injured by a violation of this section.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment."

Amend the title as follows:

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary Finance and Civil Law.

The report was adopted.

Hornstein from the Committee on Transportation Finance and Policy to which was referred:

H. F. No. 26, A bill for an act relating to transportation; appropriating money related to the federal Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act.

Reported the same back with the recommendation that the bill be re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The report was adopted.

Xiong from the Committee on Workforce Development Finance and Policy to which was referred:

H. F. No. 27, A bill for an act relating to unemployment insurance; providing for additional benefits.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. IRON ORE MINING ADDITIONAL UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS PROGRAM.

Subdivision 1. Availability of additional benefits. Additional unemployment benefits are available from the Minnesota unemployment insurance trust fund to an applicant who was laid off due to lack of work between April 3, 2022, and March 4, 2023, from:

(1) an employer in the iron ore mining industry that laid off 50 percent or more of the employer's workforce between April 3, 2022, and March 4, 2023; or

(2) an employer that is in the explosive manufacturing industry providing goods or services to an employer in the iron ore mining industry if the applicant was laid off due to the cessation or substantial reduction in operations of an employer in the iron ore mining industry as described in clause (1).

Subd. 2. Eligibility requirements. An applicant is eligible to receive additional unemployment benefits under this section for any week through the week ending January 27, 2024, if:

(1) the applicant established a benefit account under Minnesota Statutes, section 268.07, with 50 percent or greater of the wage credits from an employer as described in subdivision 1, and has exhausted the maximum amount of regular unemployment benefits available on that benefit account; and

(2) the applicant meets the same requirements that an applicant for regular unemployment benefits must meet under Minnesota Statutes, section 268.069, subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. Weekly and maximum amount of additional unemployment benefits. (a) The weekly benefit amount of additional unemployment benefits is the same as the weekly benefit amount of regular unemployment benefits on the benefit account established in subdivision 2, clause (1).

(b) The maximum amount of additional unemployment benefits available to an applicant under this section is an amount equal to 26 weeks of payment at the applicant's weekly additional unemployment benefit amount.

(c) If an applicant qualifies for a new regular benefit account that meets the requirements of subdivision 4, paragraph (b), before the applicant has been paid additional unemployment benefits, and the new regular benefit account meets the requirements of subdivision 2, clause (1), the applicant's weekly additional unemployment benefit amount is equal to the weekly unemployment benefit amount on the applicant's new regular benefit account.

Subd. 4. Qualifying for a new regular benefit account. (a) If, after exhausting the maximum amount of regular unemployment benefits available as a result of the layoff under subdivision 1, an applicant qualifies for the new regular benefit account under Minnesota Statutes, section 268.07, the applicant must apply for and establish the new regular benefit account.

(b) If the applicant's weekly benefit amount under the new regular benefit account is equal to or higher than the applicant's weekly additional unemployment benefit amount, the applicant must request unemployment benefits under the new regular benefit account. An applicant is ineligible for additional unemployment benefits under this section until the applicant has exhausted the maximum amount of unemployment benefits available on the new regular benefit account.

(c) If the applicant's weekly unemployment benefit amount on the new regular benefit account is less than the applicant's weekly benefit amount of additional unemployment benefits, the applicant must request additional unemployment benefits. An applicant is ineligible for new regular unemployment benefits until the applicant has exhausted the maximum amount of additional unemployment benefits available under this section.

Subd. 5. Charging of benefits. Additional unemployment benefits paid under this section may not be used to compute the future unemployment tax rate of a taxpaying employer and may not be charged to the reimbursing account of government or nonprofit employers. This exception does not apply to an employer described in subdivision 1, clause (1).

Subd. 6. Eligibility for federal Trade Readjustment Allowance benefits. An applicant who has applied and been determined eligible for federal Trade Readjustment Allowance benefits is not eligible for additional unemployment benefits under this section.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective retroactively from August 14, 2022."
