

To Whom It May Concern,

I am reaching out about the proposed changes to HF874. I am very concerned about the rephrasing of our constitution in this area. These proposed changes are undermining the right of parents to make sound educational decisions regarding their children's education. I am against the HF874 New Constitutional Language Proposal.

Priscilla Gilbertson