Bill Description

HF 1525 (first engrossment) would modify the composition of the Transportation Advisory Board (TAB) by requiring that one of the public transit representatives to TAB is appointed by the Suburban Transit Association. The bill further requires that this representative must be an elected official from a city participating in the replacement service program.

Assumptions

The is no fiscal impact to this bill. The TAB already exists, and this bill does not change the size or functions of this board.
