1.6 Subdivision 1. Generally. Except as provided in subdivision 2 or section 484.085, a 1.7 public notice shall be published in a qualified newspaper, and except as otherwise provided 1.8 by law, in one that is likely to give notice in the affected area or to whom it is directed.
1.9 When a statute or other law requires publication in a newspaper located in a designated 1.10 political subdivision or area and no qualified newspaper is located there, publication shall 1.11 be made in a qualified newspaper likely to give notice unless the particular statute or law
1.12 expressly provides otherwise. If no qualified newspaper exists, then publication is not 1.13 required.

1.14 Sec. 2. [484.085] PUBLICATION OF NOTICE.

1.15 Subdivision 1. Authority. Notwithstanding any statute specifically requiring publication
1.16 of a notice in a qualified newspaper, the district court may publish a notice, summons, order,
1.17 or process in judicial proceedings required by statute, rule, or court order by posting it on

1.19 there is no qualified local newspaper that is likely to give notice in the affected area or to 1.20 whom it is directed.

1.21 Subd. 2. Effect. Publication in accordance with this section meets the definition of 1.22 published notice under section 645.11.

2.1 Subd. 3. Optional use. Nothing in this section requires the district court to publish a 2.2 notice on its website in lieu of or in addition to publication in a qualified newspaper.

2.3 Subd. 4. Scope. This section applies only to notices, summonses, orders, or processes
2.4 in judicial proceedings that are required by statute, rule, or court order to be published by

2.13 "Sec. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 611A.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

2.14 Subd. 3. Effect of order for restitution. An order of restitution may be enforced by 2.15 any person named in the order to receive the restitution, or by the Crime Victims
2.16 Reimbursement Board in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action. Any order for 2.17 restitution in favor of a victim shall also operate as an order for restitution in favor of the 2.18 Crime Victims Reimbursement Board, if the board has paid reimbursement to the victim
2.19 or on the victim's behalf. Filing fees for docketing an order of restitution as a civil judgment
2.20 are waived for any victim named in the restitution order. An order of restitution shall be 2.21 docketed as a civil judgment, in the name of any person named in the order and in the name
2.22 of the Crime Victims Reimbursement Board, by the court administrator of the district court
2.23 in the county in which the order of restitution was entered. Notwithstanding section 541.04
2.24 or any other law or rule to the contrary, an order of restitution docketed as a civil judgment
2.25 does not expire until satisfied or otherwise discharged pursuant to a court order. The court 2.26 administrator also shall notify the commissioner of revenue of the restitution debt in the 2.27 manner provided in chapter 270A, the Revenue Recapture Act. A juvenile court is not
2.28 required to appoint a guardian ad litem for a juvenile offender before docketing a restitution
2.29 order. Interest shall accrue on the unpaid balance of the judgment as provided in section
2.30 549.09. Whether the order of restitution has been docketed or not, it is a debt that is not 2.31 dischargeable in bankruptcy. A decision for or against restitution in any criminal or juvenile 2.32 proceeding is not a bar to any civil action by the victim or by the state pursuant to section
2.33 611A.61 against the offender. The offender shall be given credit, in any order for judgment

- 3.1 in favor of a victim in a civil action, for any restitution paid to the victim for the same
- 3.2 injuries for which the judgment is awarded."
