1.3 "Subd. 3. Income eligibility rules. (a) Individuals with incomes that meet the 1.4 requirements of this subdivision satisfy the income eligibility requirements for the program.
 1.5 For purposes of this subdivision, "poverty line" has the meaning used in section 36B of the 1.6 Internal Revenue Code, except that modified adjusted gross income, as reported on the 1.7 individual's federal income tax return for tax year 2016, must be used instead of household
 1.8 income. For married separate filers claiming eligibility for family coverage, modified 1.9 adjusted gross income equals the sum of that income reported by both spouses on their 1.10 returns.

1.11 (b) Individuals are eligible for premium assistance if their modified adjusted gross income 1.12 is greater than 300 percent but does not exceed 800 percent of the poverty line.

1.13 Subd. 4. Determination of assistance amounts. (a) For the period January 1, 2017, 1.14 through December 31, 2017, eligible individuals qualify for premium assistance equal to 1.15 25 percent of the qualified premium for effectuated coverage.

1.16 (b) The commissioner shall determine premium assistance amounts as provided under 1.17 this subdivision so that the estimated sum of all premium assistance for eligible individuals
 1.18 does not exceed the appropriation for this purpose. The commissioner may adjust premium
 1.19 assistance amounts using a sliding scale based on income, if this is necessary to remain
 1.20 within the limits of the appropriation."
