1.4 "Section 1. [5.385] USE OF PUBLIC FUNDS; BALLOT QUESTIONS.

1.5 Notwithstanding section 10A.52, paragraph (b), the secretary of state shall not spend,
1.6 or cause to be spent, any public funds or use any other public resource with the purpose of 1.7 promoting or defeating a ballot question at any time. The secretary of state shall not use the 1.8 inherent prestige of the office in any manner that has the effect of promoting or defeating 1.9 a ballot question. The secretary of state may spend public funds to provide impartial and 1.10 balanced information on ballot questions that does not have the effect of promoting or 1.11 defeating a ballot question. For purposes of this section, public funds means all general, 1.12 special, permanent, trust, and other funds, regardless of source or purpose, held or 1.13 administered by a government entity."

1.15 "Sec. 26. [10A.52] USE OF PUBLIC FUNDS; BALLOT QUESTIONS.

1.16 (a) No public official shall spend, or cause to be spent, any public funds or use any other 1.17 public resource with the purpose of promoting or defeating a ballot question or in a manner
1.18 that has the effect of promoting or defeating a ballot question.

1.19 (b) This prohibition only applies after final enactment of a legislative act that places a 1.20 ballot question on the ballot.

1.21 (c) For purposes of this section, public funds means all general, special, permanent, trust,
1.22 and other funds, regardless of source or purpose, held or administered by a government
1.23 entity."
