Overview

HF 3585 appropriates $2,500,000 in fiscal year 2019 for a grant to the Girls in Action program to continue to provide and expand its programming. The Girls in Action program works through school and community-based programs to encourage and support girls from low income families, particularly girls of color from low income families, to graduate high school on time, complete a postsecondary preparation program, participate in community service, and become community leaders.
