1.3 "Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 222.37, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

1.4 Subdivision 1. Use requirements. Any water power, telegraph, telephone, wireless
1.5 telecommunications service provider, pneumatic tube, pipeline, community antenna
1.6 television, cable communications or electric light, heat, power company, or fire department 1.7 may use public roads for the purpose of constructing, using, operating, and maintaining 1.8 lines, subways, canals, conduits, hydrants, or dry hydrants, for their business, but such 1.9 lines shall be so located as in no way to interfere with the safety and convenience of 1.10 ordinary travel along or over the same; and, in the construction and maintenance of such 1.11 line, subway, canal, conduit, hydrants, or dry hydrants, the company shall be subject to 1.12 all reasonable regulations imposed by the governing body of any county, town or city in 1.13 which such public road may be. If the governing body does not require the company to 1.14 obtain a permit, a company shall notify the governing body of any county, town, or city 1.15 having jurisdiction over a public road prior to the construction or major repair, involving 1.16 extensive excavation on the road right-of-way, of the company's equipment along, over,
1.17 or under the public road, unless the governing body waives the notice requirement. A
1.18 waiver of the notice requirement must be renewed on an annual basis. For emergency 1.19 repair a company shall notify the governing body as soon as practical after the repair
1.20 is made. Nothing herein shall be construed to grant to any person any rights for the 1.21 maintenance of a telegraph, telephone, pneumatic tube, community antenna television
1.22 system, cable communications system, or light, heat, power system, or hydrant system 1.23 within the corporate limits of any city until such person shall have obtained the right to 1.24 maintain such system within such city or for a period beyond that for which the right to 1.25 operate such system is granted by such city."
