7.23 classification.

7.24 (b) Notwithstanding section 13.82, subdivision 7, when an individual dies as a result of 7.25 a use of force by a peace officer, an involved-officer's law enforcement agency must allow 7.26 the following individuals, upon their request, to inspect all portable recording system data,

7.28 of the request, subject to paragraphs (c) and (d):

7.29 (1) the deceased individual's next of kin;

7.30 (2) the legal representative of the deceased individual's next of kin; and 7.31 (3) the other parent of the deceased individual's child.

8.1 (c) A law enforcement agency may deny a request to inspect portable recording system 8.2 data under paragraph (b) if the agency determines that there is a compelling reason that 8.3 inspection would interfere with an active investigation. If the agency denies access under 8.4 this paragraph, the chief law enforcement officer must provide a prompt, written denial to 8.5 the individual in paragraph (b) who requested the data with a short description of the 8.6 compelling reason access was denied, and must provide notice that relief may be sought

8.10 is required by law, documenting the incident no later than 14 days after the incident, unless 8.11 the chief law enforcement officer asserts in writing that the public classification would

8.19 ~~(d)~~ (g) Any person may bring an action in the district court located in the county where 8.20 portable recording system data are being maintained to authorize disclosure of data that are

8.24 law enforcement agency and subjects of the data, if known. The law enforcement agency 8.25 must give notice to other subjects of the data, if known, who did not receive the notice from 8.26 the person bringing the action. The court may order that all or part of the data be released
8.27 to the public or to the person bringing the action. In making this determination, the court
8.28 shall consider whether the benefit to the person bringing the action or to the public outweighs 8.29 any harm to the public, to the law enforcement agency, or to a subject of the data and, if 8.30 the action is challenging a determination under paragraph (b), whether the data are clearly 8.31 offensive to common sensibilities. The data in dispute must be examined by the court in
