

Subject Legislators
Authors Myers and others
Analyst Cristina Parra
Date March 10, 2025

Summary

This bill requires members of the legislature serving on an education policy or finance committee to spend at least 12 hours over the biennium observing a teacher or administrator in an elementary, middle, or secondary school, and to report information on the observation to the speaker of the house or majority leader of the senate. The bill also requires the house of representatives and senate to adopt rules to implement this section.