New Exhibits, Events, and Arts

Wild Nights is amazing! To be included in the first year of this event means so much to me. All of my interactions with Zoo staff and event staff and people coming to the show, have been so positive. I feel the energy and intent behind this experience and it's meaningful to see people of color out here enjoying it.

~ Jamelah Cooper (artisan vendor)

I remember going to concerts at the Zoo when I was coming up and loving the space and the sound – but the atmosphere wasn't what I would call welcoming. It just wasn't. But this concept, this idea of community artists, craftspeople, and vendors – where representation matters – this is what the Black community has been asking for. THIS is it! So please tell whoever you have to tell that I love this and want to see more. ~ Annie Mack (musician)
