1.8 "Subd. 5. Investigations into police misconduct. (a) At the conclusion of any criminal 1.9 investigation or prosecution, if any, a citizen oversight council may conduct an investigation 1.10 into allegations of peace officer misconduct and retain an investigator to facilitate an 1.11 investigation. Subject to other applicable law, a council may subpoena or compel testimony
1.12 and documents in an investigation. Upon completion of an investigation, a council may 1.13 make a finding of misconduct and recommend appropriate discipline against peace officers
1.14 employed by the agency. If the governing body grants a council the authority, the council
1.15 may impose discipline on peace officers employed by the agency. A council shall submit 1.16 investigation reports that contain findings of peace officer misconduct to the chief law
1.17 enforcement officer and the Peace Officer Standards and Training Board's complaint
1.18 committee. A council may also make policy recommendations to the chief law enforcement
1.19 officer and the Peace Officer Standards and Training Board. For purposes of this section,
1.20 "misconduct" means a violation of law, standards promulgated by the Peace Officer Standards
1.21 and Training Board, or agency policy.

1.22 (b) Peace officer discipline decisions imposed pursuant to the authority granted under 1.23 this subdivision shall be subject to the applicable grievance procedure established or agreed
1.24 to under chapter 179A."
