2.1	section 135A.51, the term "noncredit courses" shall not include those courses designed
2.2	and offered specifically and exclusively for senior citizens or other eligible adults.
2.3	The provisions of this section and section 135A.51 do not apply to noncredit courses
2.4	designed and offered by the University of Minnesota, and the Minnesota State Colleges
2.5	and Universities specifically and exclusively for senior citizens. Senior citizens or other
2.6	eligible adults enrolled under the provisions of this section and section 135A.51 shall not
2.7	be included by such institutions in their computation of full-time equivalent students
2.8	when requesting staff or appropriations.
2.9	Subd. 2. Term; income of senior citizens or other eligible adult. (a) Except under
2.10	paragraph (b), there shall be no limit to the number of terms, quarters or semesters a
2.11	senior citizen or other eligible adult may attend courses, nor income limitation imposed
2.12	in determining eligibility.
2.13	(b) A senior citizen or other eligible adult enrolled in a closed enrollment contract
2.14	training program is not eligible for benefits under subdivision 1.
2.15	Subd. 3. Catalogue statement. Each state supported institution of higher education
2.16	shall prominently include in its catalogue a statement of benefits provided for senior
2.17	citizens and other eligible adults.
2.18	Subd. 4. Determination of qualifications. The institution shall determine whether
2.19	a person qualifies for, and require execution of appropriate forms to request, the senior
2.20	citizen and other eligible adult benefits.
2.21	Subd. 5. Placement. The institution shall refer interested senior citizens and other
2.22	eligible adults to social service, community, and educational agencies for employment
2.23	or volunteer work."
