2.29 year, as determined by the transactions' sale prices. Once a bullion coin dealer is required
2.30 to register itself and its coin dealer representatives, the coin dealer must thereafter renew 2.31 its registration and the registration of each of its coin dealer representatives in accordance 2.32 with this chapter, regardless of the aggregate amount of transactions, unless the person

3.5 sections 80G.03 to 80G.07 Registrations issued or renewed by the commissioner under 3.6 this chapter shall expire on June 30 and must be renewed.

3.30 money or property received from the consumer;

3.31 (6) the disclosure of any settlement or other agreement with any person or any 3.32 government entity resolving allegations by the person or government entity that the

4.5 marketing of bullion coin or investments in bullion coin.

4.6 Subd. 4. Notice of change in registration information. A bullion coin dealer must 4.7 provide the commissioner written notice of a change in the dealer's name, assumed names,

4.20 AND SUSPENSION.

4.23 any one or more of the following causes:

4.24 (1) providing incorrect, false, misleading, or incomplete information to the 4.25 commissioner or refusing to allow a reasonable inspection of information and documents

5.15 Subd. 3. Other authority of the commissioner. If a registration lapses, is 5.16 surrendered, withdrawn, terminated, or otherwise becomes ineffective, the commissioner
 5.17 may institute a proceeding under this subdivision within two years after the registration
 5.18 was last effective and enter a revocation order as of the last date on which the registration

9.9 about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business that materially aids a violation 9.10 of this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter, the commissioner or 9.11 attorney general may maintain an action in the district court to enjoin the act, practice,

9.35 conduct constituting a violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this

10.1 chapter or that a person has materially aided, is materially aiding, or is about to materially

10.34 person in civil contempt of the order. The court may impose a further civil penalty against 10.35 the person for contempt in an amount up to $10,000 for each violation and may grant any 10.36 other relief the court determines is just and proper in the circumstances.
