1.6 Page 46, after line 23, insert:

1.7 "Subd. 3. Notification to city. (a) An organizer of a motorcycle group ride event in 1.8 which one or more motorcycle road guards are planned to be used shall notify the chief of 1.9 police of each city of the first class within which motorcyclists are planned to travel along
1.10 the event route. The notification must be made at least ten business days prior to the date
1.11 of the event, and must specify the event route and expected times and locations of traffic
1.12 control planned to be performed by motorcycle road guards.

1.13 (b) Following the event notification under paragraph (a), the chief of police shall 1.14 determine whether to (1) allow motor road guards to perform traffic control for the 1.15 motorcycle group ride as provided in this section and chapter 169, or (2) provide traffic
1.16 control through authorized city personnel at the times and locations specified in the event
1.17 notification. The chief of police shall respond in writing to the event organizer of the 1.18 determination at least three business days prior to the date of the event.

1.19 (c) The chief of police and the city may not impose a charge to event organizers or 1.20 motorcyclists for traffic control services provided under paragraph (b), clause (2)."
