

March 9, 2021

Jeffrey Spranger
19274 180th Avenue NW
Big Lake, MN 55309

To Whom It May Concern:

As a homeschool parent in the state of Minnesota, I strongly oppose the proposed amendment to the Education Policy Omnibus bill that will be discussed on Wednesday, March 10, 2021.

There is no credible evidence to suggest that a change in Homeschool standardized testing reporting requirements is necessary or useful. It would impose unnecessary and burdensome requirements on Minnesota homeschoolers and school districts.

Thank you,

Jeffrey Spranger