1.11 "Subd. 2a. Staffing. (a) The inspector general's first annual report submitted under 1.12 Minnesota Statutes, section 15E.25, subdivision 1, clause (9), is due February 1, 2028, and 1.13 must include the following information:

1.14 (1) the current number of positions authorized by the inspector general, by job
1.15 classification;

1.16 (2) the number of positions under clause (1) that the inspector general has filled; and

1.17 (3) any staffing changes the inspector general anticipates during calendar year 2028.

1.18 (b) The inspector general must not modify the number of authorized positions reported
1.19 under clause (1) until June 1, 2028."

1.20 Page 22, after line 20, insert:

1.21 "(e) The Office of the Inspector General may enter into an interagency agreement with 1.22 the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension to assist the inspector general with any criminal 1.23 investigation or to conduct a criminal investigation on behalf of the inspector general. The

2.1 Office of the Inspector General and the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension may coordinate
2.2 investigative efforts as necessary or practical. The interagency agreement must include a 2.3 clause on cost-sharing for investigations that may require multiagency coordination and a 2.4 clause that details what process will be followed if a joint investigation is required. Any 2.5 Bureau of Criminal Apprehension personnel that assist the Office of the Inspector General 2.6 under an interagency agreement remain under the operational control and direction of the 2.7 superintendent of the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension. The Office of the Inspector General
2.8 may have access to any criminal investigative data obtained or created by the Bureau of 2.9 Criminal Apprehension as part of any criminal investigation efforts conducted pursuant to 2.10 the interagency agreement."
