EXPLANATION OF THE BILL

The bill would create a property tax task force with two main goals:

- Investigate causes of property tax increases across local government jurisdictions.
- Present options to increase transparency in local government budgeting, including ways to standardize information in proposed property tax notices and related public meetings.

The task force must submit a report with recommendations and any other relevant findings by January 15, 2027.

REVENUE ANALYSIS DETAIL

- There would be no revenue impact to the state general fund.
