

Subject Eminent domain procedures

Authors Masin and others

Analyst Deborah A. Dyson

Date March 3, 2020

Summary

Requires that a person appointed by a court to serve on the panel that decides the value of the property in an eminent domain process, reside in Minnesota.

Strikes language relating to the timing of a court's inquiry, or release of the results of the inquiry, into qualifications of a person appointed by the court to serve on the panel that decides the value of the property in an eminent domain process.