	Subd. 4. Optional early reissuance; fee exemption. Creates an exemption from the standard fees for driver’s licenses and identification cards for some renewals. The exemption applies if the license or card: 1) was issued prior to when Minnesota starts issuing REAL ID-compliant documents; and 2) has an expiration date that is after the date when only fully REAL ID-compliant licenses and cards are federally accepted. The fee exemption is available for a year after the date federal full compliance starts. Some fees for optional services such as expedited service remain in effect, and the exemption does not apply for reinstatements and enhanced licenses or identification cards.		Subd. 4. Optional early reissuance and expiration date extension. Eligible applicants who submit a renewal application for a REAL ID-compliant driver’s license or identification card will have their next renewal date extended by two years. An eligible applicant is an applicant for a REAL ID-compliant driver’s license or identification card who: 1) holds a valid driver’s license or identification card that was issued prior to REAL-ID compliant cards becoming available and expires after the date when only fully compliant REAL ID cards are accepted; 2) submits the application no later than October 31, 2020; and 3) is otherwise eligible to obtain the card.
