1.4 "Sec. 2. [216B.485] APPLIANCE INSTALLATION REWARDS; PROHIBITION.

1.5 (a) No public utility or its affiliate may provide anything of value to a person who
1.6 constructs a new building, or award points or other quantitative measures to the person that
1.7 can be redeemed by another person for anything of value, in exchange for the installation
1.8 of appliances powered by a specific fuel in the new building constructed by the person or
1.9 entity.

1.10 (b) Nothing in this section affects or restricts the ability of a public utility to offer financial
1.11 incentives to the owner of an owner-occupied building, the lessor of a leased building, or
1.12 a unit owner, not including a declarant, in exchange for installation of any appliance.

1.13 (c) For the purposes of this section:

1.14 (1) "declarant" has the meaning given in section 515B.1-103, paragraph (15); and

1.15 (2) "unit owner" has the meaning given in section 515B.1-103, paragraph (37).

1.16 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment."
