Overview

This bill contains a number of provisions that pertain to the administration of state land being recommended by the Department of Natural Resources (DNR).

Summary

Section	Description
1	Conveying interests in lands to state, federal, and Tribal governments. Allows the DNR to waive/assume certain fees and costs associated with issuing an easement on state lands if the commissioner determines that issuing the easement will benefit the state's land management interests.
2	Road easements across state lands. Allows the DNR to waive/assume certain fees and costs associated with issuing a road easement on state lands if the commissioner determines that issuing the easement will benefit the state's land management interests.
3	Conveyance of unneeded state easements. Allows the DNR to waive certain fees and costs associated with releasing a state easement if the commissioner determines that releasing the easement will benefit the state's land management interests.
4	Leasing tax-forfeited and state lands. Allows the DNR to enter into a 30-year lease of DNR administered land for facilities.
5	Addition to state park. Adds land to the statutory boundary of Myre-Big Island State Park.
6	Deletion from state forest. Removes land from the statutory boundary of Cloquet Valley State Forest.
