Residency requirements for various Minnesota human services programs

MFIP: Residency established when a child or caregiver has resided in the state for 30 consecutive days with the intention of making the person's home in the state and not for any temporary purpose. The 30-day residency requirement may be waived where there is an unusual hardship, which means, 1) assistance unit is without alternative shelter; or 2) is without available resources for food. (MS § 256J.12)

General Assistance: Residency required for 30 days with the intention of making the person's home in the state and not for any temporary purpose. Time spent in a battered women's shelter can satisfy this requirement. Applicants must demonstrate this intent by showing that the applicant maintains a residence at a verified address other than a place of public accommodation. An applicant must verify his or her residence; methods for residency verification are governed by Minnesota Rules, part 9500.1219, subpart 3, item C. The 30-day residency requirement may be waived where there is an unusual hardship, which means: 1) assistance unit is without alternative shelter; or 2) is without available resources for food. (MS § 256D.02, Subd. 12a)

Minnesota Supplemental Aid: Must be a resident of Minnesota and a citizen of the United States, or a legal noncitizen eligible to receive benefits from the federal Supplemental Security Income program. (MS § 256D.385)

Group Residential Housing: No residency provisions in statute.

MinnesotaCare: Must meet residency requirements provided by Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Title 42, section 435.403. Generally, a person must live in the state with the intention to remain in the state permanently. (MS § 256L.09, Subd. 2)

Medical Assistance: A person must reside in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, be deemed to be a resident of Minnesota, in accordance with CFR Title 42, section 435.403. (MS § 256B.056, Subd. 1)

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP): No durational residency required. Must meet general residency requirement where the person has the intention of making the person's home in Minnesota and not for any temporary purpose.
