5.8 means; or (2) pursuing an employer for breach of the employer's contractual obligations to

5.31 to consumers, the person must obtain a license from the commissioner as an earned wage
5.32 access services provider. For purposes of this subdivision, "person" includes a person that

6.21 The report must include the information the commissioner reasonably requires concerning 6.22 the earned wage access services business and operations during the preceding calendar year,

The commissioner has free access to the offices, places of business, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of all persons that must register under this section. The commissioner is authorized to require the attendance of and to examine under oath all persons whose testimony the commissioner requires relative to the earned wage access services business or to the subject matter of an examination, investigation, or hearing.

(b) A licensee must pay to the commissioner the amount required under section 46.131, and the commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of the costs in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Subd. 7. Complaints alleging violation. A consumer that has reason to believe this section has been violated may file a written complaint with the commissioner setting forth the details of the alleged violation. Upon receiving the complaint, the commissioner may inspect the pertinent books, records, letters, and contracts of the provider involved. The commissioner may assess the provider a fee to cover the necessary costs of an investigation under this subdivision. Subd. 8. Suspension or revocation of license. (a) The commissioner may, upon 30 days' notice to the licensee stating the contemplated action and the grounds forming the basis for the action, and upon reasonable opportunity for the licensee to be heard, revoke a license issued under this section if the commissioner finds:

(1) a licensee failed to (i) pay the annual license fee required by this section, or (ii) comply with any demand, ruling, or requirement the commissioner lawfully made pursuant to the authority of this section;

(2) a licensee violated any material provision of this section or any rule adopted by the commissioner under this section; or

(3) a fact or condition exists that, if the fact or condition had existed at the time of the original application for the license, would have warranted the commissioner refusing to originally issue the license.

(b) The commissioner may, upon three days' notice and a hearing, suspend any license for a period not exceeding 30 days pending an investigation.

(c) The commissioner may revoke or suspend a license if grounds for revocation or suspension occur or exist. If the commissioner finds that the grounds for revocation or

8.1 suspension apply to multiple offices operated by the licensee, the commissioner must revoke
8.2 or suspend all of the licenses issued to the licensee to which the grounds for revocation or 8.3 suspension apply.

8.4 (d) A licensee may surrender a license by delivering to the commissioner written notice
8.5 that the licensee surrenders the license. The surrender does not affect the licensee's civil or 8.6 criminal liability for acts committed prior to the surrender.

8.7 (e) A revocation, suspension, or surrender of a license does not impair or affect the 8.8 obligation of a preexisting lawful contract between the licensee and a consumer.

8.9 (f) A license issued under this section remains effective until the license is surrendered,
8.10 revoked, or suspended under this section. The commissioner may reinstate suspended
8.11 licenses or issue new licenses to a licensee whose license or licenses have been revoked if 8.12 no fact or condition exists that would have warranted the commissioner to initially refuse
8.13 to issue the license under this section.

8.14 (g) When the commissioner revokes or suspends a license issued under this section, the 8.15 commissioner must file a written order that contains the evidence and reasons supporting
8.16 the revocation or suspension. A copy of the written order must be delivered to the licensee.
