

To whom it may concern,

I am Rakawnah. I am writing in regard to the release of my soon to be husband Lavon Johnson. I would like to begin by saying I understand when a crime is committed a punishment has to be given. At this point I am wondering when one is at a young age what is the proper steps and sentences to make sure one is properly rehabilitated? Lavon at this point has in my eyes shown he is a changed man. His actions throughout the years are a clear evidence of his rehabilitation & true growth. I am coming to you all asking to show him mercy. Please give him a chance to show & prove that he can and will be an asset to the outside world and his community. I believe he cannot reach his full potential behind bars. He has the love & support of family & friends. We are all ready and willing to do what is needed to make sure his transition back into society is a successful one. He is a son, a father, a husband, a mentor, & a friend. He deserves a second chance. Again, I hope you find it in your hearts to show him mercy. Thank You for your time.
