1.6 "Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 160.27, is amended by adding a subdivision
1.7 to read:

1.8 Subd. 11. General authority for certain field application. (a) A property owner or
1.9 occupant of property abutting the right-of-way of a county highway, including a county
1.10 state-aid highway, or town road, may temporarily place a pressurized flexible force main
1.11 for the transport of manure for field application, if the following requirements are met:

1.12 (1) the road is not a controlled-access highway under section 160.08;

1.13 (2) the force main remains in place for no more than 21 days;

1.14 (3) the force main is placed within the backslope of the road right-of-way where
1.15 possible, and is not placed on the roadway, as defined in section 169.011, subdivision 68;

1.16 (4) pumping equipment is placed outside the road right-of-way;

1.17 (5) the property owner or occupant notifies, whether verbally or in writing, the
1.18 appropriate county or town at least one business day prior to placement of the force main
1.19 in the right-of-way; and

1.20 (6) field application is performed by the holder of a valid commercial animal waste
1.21 technician applicator license under section 18C.430.

1.22 (b) A notification under paragraph (a), clause (5), must include the starting and
1.23 estimated ending dates of field application, a basic description of the entire length of
1.24 the right-of-way being used, and the name of the business or commercial animal waste
1.25 technician applicator license holder performing field application.

1.26 (c) A property owner or occupant who meets the requirements under paragraphs (a)
1.27 and (b) may place the force main over the length of the right-of-way from that property

2.1 owner's or occupant's property to where the manure will be applied, irrespective of 2.2 whether the person is the owner or occupant of all property abutting the portion of the 2.3 right-of-way where the force main is to be placed.

2.4 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment."
2.5 Amend the title accordingly
