

We already said

YES

Allow locally elected school boards to renew an expiring operating levy referendum.

“Over the past seven years, our statewide studies have shown this concept is very, very, popular. A majority of at least 60% has indicated they would support the Legislature giving school districts this ability.”

“In fact, among Republicans and Democrats – both party identifiers – we have an absolute majority supporting the change.”