5.12 and environmental education purposes. Of this
5.13 amount, up to $600,000 is for planning,
5.14 design, and engagement. No funds from this 5.15 appropriation may be spent until Congress
5.16 directs the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers to 5.17 convey an interest in the Upper St. Anthony 5.18 Falls property to the city of Minneapolis for 5.19 use as a visitor center. After this congressional 5.20 act is signed into law, up to $100,000 of the 5.21 planning, design, and engagement funds may 5.22 be spent. The remaining planning, design, and 5.23 engagement funds may be spent after a binding
5.24 agreement has been secured to acquire the land
5.25 or access and use rights to the land for at least 5.26 25 years. Any remaining balance of the 5.27 appropriation may be spent on installing
5.28 enhancements after the Upper St. Anthony
5.29 Falls land has been acquired by the city of 5.30 Minneapolis.
