

Subject Zoos

Authors Anderson, P.H. and Jacob

Analyst Colbey Sullivan

Date March 18, 2024

Summary

This bill would allow facilities accredited by the Zoological Association of America to import live cervids (deer, elk, moose, etc.) from accredited institutions located in other states or provinces where chronic wasting disease was detected in the farmed or wild cervid population within the last five years. Under current law, only facilities accredited by a separate organization, the Association of Zoos and Aquariums, are exempt from this cervid importation restriction.