3.14 Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 299A.50, is amended to read:

3.15 299A.50 RESPONSE PLAN.

3.16 Subdivision 1. Elements of plan; rules. After consultation with the commissioners of 3.17 natural resources, agriculture, transportation, and the Pollution Control Agency, the state
3.18 fire marshal, the Emergency Response Commission, appropriate technical emergency 3.19 response representatives, and representatives of affected parties, the commissioner shall
3.20 adopt rules to implement a statewide hazardous materials incident response plan. The plan
3.21 must include:

3.22 (1) the locations of ~~up to five regional~~ hazardous materials emergency response teams,
3.23 based on the location of hazardous materials, response time, proximity to large population
3.24 centers, and other factors;

3.25 (2) the number and qualifications of members on each team;

3.26 (3) the responsibilities of ~~regional~~ hazardous materials emergency response teams;

3.27 (4) equipment needed for ~~regional~~ hazardous materials emergency response teams;

3.28 (5) procedures for selecting and contracting with local governments or nonpublic persons
3.29 to establish ~~regional~~ hazardous materials emergency response teams;

3.30 (6) procedures for dispatching teams at the request of local governments;

4.1 (7) a fee schedule for reimbursing local governments or nonpublic persons responding 4.2 to an incident; and

4.3 (8) coordination with other state departments and agencies, local units of government,
4.4 other states, Indian tribes, the federal government, and other nonpublic persons.

4.5 Subd. 2. Contract and agreement. The commissioner may cooperate with and enter
4.6 into contracts with other state departments and agencies, local units of government, other 4.7 states, Indian tribes, the federal government, or nonpublic persons to implement the 4.8 emergency incident response plan.

4.9 Subd. 3. Long-term oversight; transition. When a ~~regional~~ hazardous materials 4.10 emergency response team has completed its response to an incident, the commissioner shall 4.11 notify the commissioner of the Pollution Control Agency, which is responsible for assessing 4.12 environmental damage caused by the incident and providing oversight of monitoring and 4.13 remediation of that damage from the time the response team has completed its activities.

4.14 Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 299A.51, is amended to read:

4.15 299A.51 LIABILITY AND WORKERS' COMPENSATION.

4.16 Subdivision 1. Liability. During operations authorized under section 299A.50, members
4.17 of a ~~regional hazardous materials team~~ state emergency response asset operating outside
4.18 their geographic jurisdiction are "employees of the state" as defined in section 3.736.

4.19 Subd. 2. Workers' compensation. During operations authorized under section 299A.50,
4.20 members of a ~~regional hazardous materials team~~ state emergency response asset operating
4.21 outside their geographic jurisdiction are considered employees of the Department of Public
4.22 Safety for purposes of chapter 176.

4.23 Subd. 3. Limitation. A person who provides personnel and equipment to assist at the 4.24 scene of a ~~hazardous materials~~ emergency response incident outside the person's 4.25 geographic jurisdiction or property, at the request of the state or a local unit of government,
4.26 is not liable for any civil damages resulting from acts or omissions in providing the assistance,
4.27 unless the person acts in a willful and wanton or reckless manner in providing the assistance.

4.28 Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 299A.52, is amended to read:

4.29 299A.52 RESPONSIBLE PERSON PARTY.

4.30 Subdivision 1. Response liability. A responsible person party, as described in section 4.31 115B.03, is liable for the reasonable and necessary costs, including legal and administrative 4.32 costs, of response to a ~~hazardous materials~~ emergency response incident or explosives

5.1 disposal under section 299C.063 incurred by a ~~regional hazardous materials response team~~
5.2 state emergency response asset or local unit of government. For the purposes of this section,
5.3 "hazardous substance" as used in section 115B.03 means "hazardous material" as defined
5.4 in section 299A.49.

5.5 Subd. 2. Expense recovery. The commissioner shall assess the responsible person party
5.6 ~~for the regional hazardous materials response team~~ an emergency response asset's costs of 5.7 response. The commissioner may bring an action for recovery of unpaid costs, reasonable
5.8 attorney fees, and any additional court costs. Any funds received by the commissioner under 5.9 this subdivision are appropriated to the commissioner to pay for costs for which the funds
5.10 were received. Any remaining funds at the end of the biennium shall be transferred to the 5.11 ~~Fire Safety Account~~ general fund.

5.12 Subd. 3. Attempted avoidance of liability. For purposes of sections 299A.48 to 299A.52
5.13 and 299K.095, a responsible person party may not avoid liability by conveying any right, 5.14 title, or interest in real property or by any indemnification, hold harmless agreement, or 5.15 similar agreement.

5.16 Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 299C.063, is amended to read:

5.17 299C.063 BOMB DISPOSAL EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT.

5.18 Subdivision 1. Definitions. The terms used in this section have the meanings given them
5.19 in this subdivision:

5.20 (a) "Bomb disposal unit" means a commissioner-approved unit consisting of persons
5.21 who are trained and equipped to dispose of or neutralize bombs or other similar hazardous
5.22 explosives and who are employed by a municipality.

5.23 (b) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of public safety.

5.24 ~~(c) "Municipality" has the meaning given it in section 466.01.~~

5.25 (c) "Explosives sweep" means a detailed scanning service used in corporate office 5.26 buildings, shipping hangars, event stadiums, transportation hubs, large outdoor events, and 5.27 other critical facilities using ground-penetrating radar, magnetometers, metal detectors, and 5.28 specially trained K-9 units to detect improvised explosive devices and explosive remnants
5.29 of war, such as unexploded ordnance and abandoned ordnance.

5.30 (d) "Hazardous explosives" means explosives as defined in section 299F.72, subdivision
5.31 2, explosive devices and incendiary devices as defined in section 609.668, subdivision 1,
5.32 and all materials subject to regulation under United States Code, title 18, chapter 40.

6.1 (e) "Municipality" has the meaning given in section 466.01.

6.2 Subd. 2. Expense reimbursement. (a) The commissioner may reimburse bomb disposal
6.3 units for reasonable expenses incurred:

6.4 (1) to dispose of or neutralize bombs or other similar hazardous explosives for their 6.5 employer-municipality or for another municipality outside the jurisdiction of the 6.6 employer-municipality but within the state. Reimbursement is limited to the extent of 6.7 appropriated funds;

6.8 (2) to use the services of police explosive detection K-9 assets;

6.9 (3) for dignitary explosive sweeps;

6.10 (4) for explosive sweeps at large state events;

6.11 (5) to provide for explosive security at large state events; and 6.12 (6) for large-scale scheduled public events.

6.13 (b) Reimbursement for expenses under this subdivision is limited to the extent of 6.14 appropriated funds.

6.15 Subd. 3. Agreements. The commissioner may enter into contracts or agreements with 6.16 bomb disposal units to implement and administer this section.

6.17 Subd. 4. Public event agreements. The commissioner may enter into contracts with 6.18 public event organizers, as defined in section 299A.52, for costs associated with explosive 6.19 sweeps conducted by state bomb disposal units.

6.20 Sec. 9. [299C.092] QUESTIONED IDENTITY PROCESS.

6.21 Subdivision 1. Definitions. (a) For the purposes of this section, the terms in this 6.22 subdivision have the meanings given.

6.23 (b) "Questioned identity" means an individual's identity that is associated with another 6.24 person's records when the individual's identity is used by an offender in interactions with 6.25 law enforcement or that the offender has the same name which can lead to difficulties
6.26 differentiating the individual from the offender.

6.27 (c) "Bureau" means the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension.

6.28 Subd. 2. Process. (a) When an individual is the subject of questioned identity, the 6.29 individual may request a review by the bureau through its questioned identity process.
6.30 Individuals must contact the bureau and provide the following:

7.1 (1) documentation of the individual's identity through or via a government-issued photo
7.2 identification;

7.3 (2) documents or information that lead the individual to believe that the individual is 7.4 the subject of questioned identity; and

7.5 (3) fingerprints for identification verification purposes.

7.6 (b) If the bureau is able to confirm that the individual is the subject of questioned identity,
7.7 the bureau shall provide documentation to the individual indicating that the individual has 7.8 been through the bureau's questioned identity process.

7.9 (c) The bureau shall denote any aliases determined to be questioned identities in the 7.10 Criminal History System under section 299C.09 and shall work with other state and local 7.11 agencies to denote aliases in arrest warrants.

7.12 (d) The bureau shall attach a photo of the offender to arrest warrants in the bureau's
7.13 warrant file if a photo is available.

7.14 (e) Notwithstanding section 13.87, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), the bureau, in 7.15 consultation with reporting criminal justice agencies, may remove an alias from a criminal
7.16 history record when it determines doing so will not negatively impact a criminal justice
7.17 agency's ability to identify the offender in the future. Some considerations in making the 7.18 determination include but are not limited to time elapsed since the alias name was last used, 7.19 frequency with which the alias was used, current incarceration status of the offender, whether 7.20 it is or was the offender's name, and whether the offender is living or deceased.

7.21 (f) Law enforcement must take into account the presence of documentation from the 7.22 bureau or another law enforcement agency confirming a questioned identity when considering 7.23 whether an individual has a warrant under section 299C.115 and may contact the bureau or 7.24 the issuing law enforcement agency to confirm authenticity of the documentation provided 7.25 by an individual.

7.26 Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 299C.46, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

7.27 Subdivision 1. Establishment. The commissioner of public safety shall establish a
7.28 criminal justice data communications network that will provide secure access to systems
7.29 and services available from or through the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension. The Bureau
7.30 of Criminal Apprehension may approve additional criminal justice uses by authorized 7.31 agencies to access necessary systems or services not from or through the bureau. The 7.32 commissioner of public safety is authorized to lease or purchase facilities and equipment
7.33 as may be necessary to establish and maintain the data communications network.

8.1 Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 299C.65, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

8.2 Subd. 1a. Membership; duties. (a) The Criminal and Juvenile Justice Information and 8.3 Bureau of Criminal Apprehension Advisory Group consists of the following members:

8.4 (1) the commissioner of corrections or designee;

8.5 (2) the commissioner of public safety or designee;

8.6 (3) the state chief information officer or designee;

8.22 representing the interests of local corrections, at least one of whom represents a Community
8.23 Corrections Act county;

8.24 (13) two probation officers appointed by the commissioner of corrections in consultation
8.25 with the president of the Minnesota Association of Community Corrections Act Counties
8.26 and the president of the Minnesota Association of County Probation Officers;

8.27 (14) four public members appointed by the governor representing both metropolitan and 8.28 greater Minnesota for a term of four years using the process described in section 15.059,
8.29 one of whom represents the interests of victims, and one of whom represents the private 8.30 business community who has expertise in integrated information systems and who, for the 8.31 purposes of meetings of the advisory group, may be compensated pursuant to section 15.059;

9.1 (15) two members appointed by the Minnesota Association for Court Management, at 9.2 least one of whom must be a court administrator;

9.3 (16) one member of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house,
9.4 or an alternate who is also a member of the house of representatives, appointed by the 9.5 speaker of the house;

9.6 (17) one member of the senate appointed by the majority leader, or an alternate who is 9.7 also a member of the senate, appointed by the majority leader of the senate;

9.8 (18) one member appointed by the attorney general;

9.9 (19) two members appointed by the League of Minnesota Cities, one of whom works
9.10 or resides in greater Minnesota and one of whom works or resides in the seven-county 9.11 metropolitan area, and at least one of whom is an elected official;

9.12 (20) two members appointed by the Association of Minnesota Counties, one of whom
9.13 works or resides in greater Minnesota and one of whom works or resides in the seven-county 9.14 metropolitan area, and at least one of whom is an elected official; and 9.15 (21) the director of the Sentencing Guidelines Commission or a designee.

9.16 (b) The chair, first vice-chair, and second vice-chair shall be elected by the advisory 9.17 group.

9.18 (c) The advisory group shall serve as the state advisory group on statewide criminal 9.19 justice information policy and funding issues. The advisory group shall study and make 9.20 recommendations to the governor, the supreme court, and the legislature on criminal justice
9.21 information funding and policy issues such as related data practices, individual privacy 9.22 rights, and data on race and ethnicity; information-sharing at the local, state, and federal 9.23 levels; technology education and innovation; the impact of proposed legislation on the 9.24 criminal justice system related to information systems and business processes; and data and 9.25 identification standards.

9.26 (d) The advisory group shall have the additional duties of reviewing and advising the 9.27 bureau superintendent on:

9.28 (1) audits, accreditation reports, and internal reviews of bureau operations;

9.29 (2) emerging technologies in the law enforcement and forensic science fields;

9.30 (3) policies and practices that impact individual privacy interests; and

9.31 (4) other programmatic and operational initiatives of the bureau at the request of the 9.32 superintendent.

10.1 Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 299C.65, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

10.2 Subd. 3a. Report. The advisory group shall file a biennial report with the governor, 10.3 supreme court, and chairs and ranking minority members of the senate and house of 10.4 representatives committees and divisions with jurisdiction over criminal justice funding
10.5 and policy by January 15 in each odd-numbered year. The report must provide the following:

10.6 (1) status and review of current statewide criminal justice information systems;

10.7 (2) recommendations concerning any legislative changes or appropriations that are 10.8 needed to ensure that the criminal justice information systems operate accurately and 10.9 efficiently; ~~and~~

10.10 (3) summary of the activities of the advisory group, including any funding and grant 10.11 requests; and

10.12 (4) summary of any reviews conducted by the advisory group of bureau audits, reports,
10.13 policies, programs, and procedures along with any recommendations provided to the bureau
10.14 related to the reviews.

10.15 Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 299F.362, is amended to read:

10.16 299F.362 SMOKE ~~DETECTOR~~ ALARM; INSTALLATION; RULES; PENALTY.

10.17 Subdivision 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this section, the following definitions
10.18 shall apply:

10.19 (a) "Apartment house" is any building, or portion thereof, which is designed, built,
10.20 rented, leased, let, or hired out to be occupied, or which is occupied as the home or residence
10.21 of three or more families living independently of each other and doing their own cooking
10.22 in the building, and shall include buildings containing three or more flats or apartments.

10.23 (b) "Dwelling" is any building, or any portion thereof, which is not an apartment house,
10.24 lodging house, or a hotel and which contains one or two "dwelling units" which are, or are 10.25 intended or designed to be, occupied for living purposes.

10.26 (c) "Dwelling unit" is a single unit providing complete, independent living facilities for 10.27 one or more persons including permanent provisions for living, sleeping, eating, cooking,
10.28 and sanitation, or a single unit used by one or more persons for sleeping and sanitation
10.29 pursuant to a work practice or labor agreement.

10.30 (d) "Hotel" is any building, or portion thereof, containing six or more guest rooms
10.31 intended or designed to be used, or which are used, rented, or hired out to be occupied, or 10.32 which are occupied for sleeping purposes by guests.

11.1 (e) "Lodging house" is any building, or portion thereof, containing not more than five 11.2 guest rooms which are used or are intended to be used for sleeping purposes by guests and 11.3 where rent is paid in money, goods, labor, or otherwise.

11.4 Subd. 2. Rules; smoke detector alarm location. The commissioner of public safety
11.5 shall promulgate rules concerning the placement of smoke ~~detectors~~ alarms in dwellings, 11.6 apartment houses, hotels, and lodging houses. The rules shall take into account designs of 11.7 the guest rooms or dwelling units.

11.8 Subd. 3. Smoke detector alarm for any dwelling. Every dwelling unit within a dwelling
11.9 must be provided with a smoke ~~detector~~ alarm meeting the requirements of the State Fire 11.10 Code. The ~~detector~~ smoke alarm must be mounted in accordance with the rules regarding 11.11 smoke ~~detector~~ alarm location adopted under subdivision 2. When actuated, the ~~detector~~
11.12 smoke alarm must provide an alarm in the dwelling unit.

11.13 Subd. 3a. Smoke detector alarm for new dwelling. In construction of a new dwelling, 11.14 each smoke ~~detector~~ alarm must be attached to a centralized power source.

11.15 Subd. 4. Smoke detector alarm for apartment, lodging house, or hotel. Every dwelling 11.16 unit within an apartment house and every guest room in a lodging house or hotel used for 11.17 sleeping purposes must be provided with a smoke ~~detector~~ alarm conforming to the 11.18 requirements of the State Fire Code. In dwelling units, ~~detectors~~ smoke alarms must be 11.19 mounted in accordance with the rules regarding smoke ~~detector~~ alarm location adopted
11.20 under subdivision 2. When actuated, the ~~detector~~ smoke alarm must provide an alarm in 11.21 the dwelling unit or guest room.

11.22 Subd. 5. Maintenance responsibilities. For all occupancies covered by this section 11.23 where the occupant is not the owner of the dwelling unit or the guest room, the owner is 11.24 responsible for maintenance of the smoke ~~detectors~~ alarms. An owner may file inspection
11.25 and maintenance reports with the local fire marshal for establishing evidence of inspection
11.26 and maintenance of smoke ~~detectors~~ alarms.

11.27 Subd. 5a. Inform owner; no added liability. The occupant of a dwelling unit must 11.28 inform the owner of the dwelling unit of a nonfunctioning smoke ~~detector~~ alarm within 24
11.29 hours of discovering that the smoke ~~detector~~ alarm in the dwelling unit is not functioning.
11.30 If the occupant fails to inform the owner under this subdivision, the occupant's liability for 11.31 damages is not greater than it otherwise would be.

11.32 Subd. 6. Penalties. (a) Any person who violates any provision of this section ~~shall be~~ 11.33 is subject to the same penalty and ~~the~~ enforcement mechanism that is provided for violation
11.34 of the State Fire Code, as specified in section 299F.011, subdivision 6.

12.1 (b) An occupant who willfully disables a smoke ~~detector~~ alarm or causes it to be 12.2 nonfunctioning, resulting in damage or injury to persons or property, is guilty of a 12.3 misdemeanor.

12.4 Subd. 7. Local government preempted. This section prohibits a local unit of government 12.5 from adopting standards different from those provided in this section.

12.6 Subd. 9. Local government ordinance; installation in single-family
 12.7 residence. Notwithstanding subdivision 7, or other law to the contrary, a local governing 12.8 body may adopt, by ordinance, rules for the installation of a smoke ~~detector~~ alarm in 12.9 single-family homes in the city that are more restrictive than the standards provided by this 12.10 section. Rules adopted pursuant to this subdivision may be enforced through a 12.11 truth-in-housing inspection.

12.12 Subd. 10. Public fire safety educator. The position of Minnesota public fire safety
 12.13 educator is established in the Department of Public Safety.

12.14 Subd. 11. Insurance claim. No insurer shall deny a claim for loss or damage by fire for 12.15 failure of a person to comply with this section.

12.16 Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 609.87, is amended by adding a subdivision to 12.17 read:

 12.31 computer network;

13.1 (3) intentionally and without authorization or claim of right accesses or copies any 13.2 computer software or electronic data and uses, alters, transfers, retains, or publishes the 13.3 computer software or electronic data; or

13.4 (4) intentionally retains copies of any computer software or electronic data beyond the 13.5 individual's authority.

13.6 Subd. 2. Penalty. Anyone who commits computer or electronic data theft may be 13.7 sentenced as follows:

13.8 ~~(a)~~ (1) to imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more
13.9 than $50,000, or both, if the loss to the owner, or the owner's agent, or lessee is in excess 13.10 of $2,500; or

13.11 ~~(b)~~ (2) to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more 13.12 than $10,000, or both, if the loss to the owner, or the owner's agent, or lessee is more than 13.13 $500 but not more than $2,500; or

13.14 ~~(c)~~ (3) in all other cases to imprisonment for not more than 90 days or to payment of a 13.15 fine of not more than $1,000, or both.

13.16 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2023, and applies to crimes
13.17 committed on or after that date.

13.18 Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.033, is amended to read:

13.19 611A.033 SPEEDY TRIAL; NOTICE OF HEARINGS AND SCHEDULE
13.20 CHANGE.

13.21 (a) A victim has the right to request that the prosecutor make a demand under rule 11.09
13.22 of the Rules of Criminal Procedure that the trial be commenced within 60 days of the demand.
13.23 The prosecutor shall make reasonable efforts to comply with the victim's request.

13.24 (b) A prosecutor shall make reasonable efforts to provide to a victim the date and time 13.25 of the sentencing hearing and the hearing during which the plea is to be presented to the 13.26 court.

13.27 ~~(b)~~ (c) A prosecutor shall make reasonable efforts to provide advance notice of any 13.28 change in the schedule of the court proceedings to a victim who has been subpoenaed or 13.29 requested to testify.

13.30 ~~(c)~~ (d) In a criminal proceeding in which a vulnerable adult, as defined in section 609.232,
13.31 subdivision 11, is a victim, the state may move the court for a speedy trial. The court, after

14.1 consideration of the age and health of the victim, may grant a speedy trial. The motion may 14.2 be filed and served with the complaint or any time after the complaint is filed and served.

14.3 Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.039, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

14.4 Subdivision 1. Notice required. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 2, 14.5 within 15 working days after a conviction, acquittal, or dismissal in a criminal case in which 14.6 there is an identifiable crime victim, the prosecutor shall make reasonable good faith efforts 14.7 to provide to each affected crime victim oral or written notice of the final disposition of the 14.8 case and of the victim rights under section 611A.06. When the court is considering modifying
14.9 the sentence for a felony or a crime of violence or an attempted crime of violence, the ~~court~~
14.10 ~~or its designee~~ prosecutor shall make a reasonable and good faith effort to notify the victim
14.11 of the crime. If the victim is incapacitated or deceased, notice must be given to the victim's 14.12 family. If the victim is a minor, notice must be given to the victim's parent or guardian. The 14.13 notice must include:

14.14 (1) the date and approximate time of the review;

14.15 (2) the location where the review will occur;

14.16 (3) the name and telephone number of a person to contact for additional information;

14.17 and

14.18 (4) a statement that the victim and victim's family may provide input to the court
14.19 concerning the sentence modification.

14.20 (b) The Office of Justice Programs in the Department of Public Safety shall develop and 14.21 update a model notice of postconviction rights under this subdivision and section 611A.06.

14.22 (c) As used in this section, "crime of violence" has the meaning given in section 624.712,
14.23 subdivision 5, and also includes violations of section 609.3458, gross misdemeanor violations
14.24 of section 609.224, and nonfelony violations of sections 518B.01, 609.2231, 609.3451,
14.25 609.748, and 609.749.

14.26 Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.51, is amended to read:

14.27 611A.51 TITLE.

14.28 Sections 611A.51 to 611A.68 shall be known as the "Minnesota Crime Victims
14.29 Reparations Reimbursement Act."

15.1 Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.52, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

15.2 Subd. 3. Board. "Board" means the Crime Victims ~~reparations~~ Reimbursement Board
15.3 established by section 611A.55.

15.4 Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.52, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

15.5 Subd. 4. Claimant. "Claimant" means a person entitled to apply for ~~reparations~~
15.6 reimbursement pursuant to sections 611A.51 to 611A.68.

15.7 Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.52, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

15.8 Subd. 5. Collateral source. "Collateral source" means a source of benefits or advantages
15.9 for economic loss otherwise ~~reparable~~ reimbursable under sections 611A.51 to 611A.68
15.10 which the victim or claimant has received, or which is readily available to the victim, from:

15.11 (1) the offender;

15.12 (2) the government of the United States or any agency thereof, a state or any of its 15.13 political subdivisions, or an instrumentality of two or more states, unless the law providing 15.14 for the benefits or advantages makes them excess or secondary to benefits under sections
15.15 611A.51 to 611A.68;

15.16 (3) Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid;

15.17 (4) state required temporary nonoccupational disability insurance;

15.18 (5) workers' compensation;

15.19 (6) wage continuation programs of any employer;

15.20 (7) proceeds of a contract of insurance payable to the victim for economic loss sustained
15.21 because of the crime;

15.22 (8) a contract providing prepaid hospital and other health care services, or benefits for 15.23 disability;

15.24 (9) any private source as a voluntary donation or gift; or 15.25 (10) proceeds of a lawsuit brought as a result of the crime.

15.26 The term does not include a life insurance contract.

16.1 Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.53, is amended to read:

16.2 611A.53 ~~REPARATIONS~~ REIMBURSEMENT AWARDS PROHIBITED.

16.3 Subdivision 1. Generally. Except as provided in subdivisions 1a and 2, the following
16.4 persons shall be entitled to ~~reparations~~ reimbursement upon a showing by a preponderance
16.5 of the evidence that the requirements for ~~reparations~~ reimbursement have been met:

16.6 (1) a victim who has incurred economic loss;

16.7 (2) a dependent who has incurred economic loss;

16.8 (3) the estate of a deceased victim if the estate has incurred economic loss;

16.9 (4) any other person who has incurred economic loss by purchasing any of the products,
16.10 services, and accommodations described in section 611A.52, subdivision 8, for a victim;

16.11 (5) the guardian, guardian ad litem, conservator or authorized agent of any of these 16.12 persons.

16.13 Subd. 1a. Providers; limitations. No hospital, medical organization, health care provider,
16.14 or other entity that is not an individual may qualify for reparations under subdivision 1, 16.15 clause (4). If a hospital, medical organization, health care provider, or other entity that is 16.16 not an individual qualifies for ~~reparations~~ reimbursement under subdivision 1, clause (5),
16.17 because it is a guardian, guardian ad litem, conservator, or authorized agent, any ~~reparations~~
16.18 reimbursement to which it is entitled must be made payable solely or jointly to the victim, 16.19 if alive, or to the victim's estate or successors, if the victim is deceased.

16.20 Subd. 1b. Minnesota residents injured elsewhere. (a) A Minnesota resident who is 16.21 the victim of a crime committed outside the geographical boundaries of this state but who 16.22 otherwise meets the requirements of this section shall have the same rights under this chapter
16.23 as if the crime had occurred within this state upon a showing that the state, territory, United 16.24 States possession, country, or political subdivision of a country in which the crime occurred
16.25 does not have a crime victim ~~reparations~~ reimbursement law covering the resident's injury
16.26 or death.

16.27 (b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), a Minnesota resident who is the victim of a crime 16.28 involving international terrorism who otherwise meets the requirements of this section has 16.29 the same rights under this chapter as if the crime had occurred within this state regardless
16.30 of where the crime occurred or whether the jurisdiction has a crime victims ~~reparations~~
16.31 reimbursement law.

17.1 Subd. 2. Limitations on awards. No ~~reparations~~ reimbursement shall be awarded to a 17.2 claimant otherwise eligible if:

17.3 (1) the crime was not reported to the police within 30 days of its occurrence or, if it
17.4 could not reasonably have been reported within that period, within 30 days of the time when 17.5 a report could reasonably have been made. A victim of criminal sexual conduct in the first,
17.6 second, third, or fourth degree who does not report the crime within 30 days of its occurrence
17.7 is deemed to have been unable to have reported it within that period;

17.8 (2) the victim or claimant failed or refused to cooperate fully with the police and other 17.9 law enforcement officials. Cooperation is determined through law enforcement reports, 17.10 prosecutor records, or corroboration memorialized in a signed document submitted by a 17.11 victim service, counseling, or medical professional involved in the case;

17.12 (3) the victim or claimant was the offender or an accomplice of the offender or an award
17.13 to the claimant would unjustly benefit the offender or an accomplice;

17.14 (4) the victim or claimant was in the act of committing a crime at the time the injury
17.15 occurred;

17.16 (5) no claim was filed with the board within three years of victim's injury or death; except 17.17 that (i) if the claimant was unable to file a claim within that period, then the claim can be 17.18 made within three years of the time when a claim could have been filed; and (ii) if the 17.19 victim's injury or death was not reasonably discoverable within three years of the injury or 17.20 death, then the claim can be made within three years of the time when the injury or death
17.21 is reasonably discoverable. The following circumstances do not render a claimant unable 17.22 to file a claim for the purposes of this clause: (A) lack of knowledge of the existence of the 17.23 Minnesota Crime Victims ~~Reparations~~ Reimbursement Act, (B) the failure of a law 17.24 enforcement agency to provide information or assistance to a potential claimant under 17.25 section 611A.66, (C) the incompetency of the claimant if the claimant's affairs were being 17.26 managed during that period by a guardian, guardian ad litem, conservator, authorized agent, 17.27 or parent, or (D) the fact that the claimant is not of the age of majority; or 17.28 (6) the claim is less than $50.

17.29 The limitations contained in clauses (1) and (6) do not apply to victims of child abuse.
17.30 In those cases the three-year limitation period commences running with the report of the 17.31 crime to the police.

18.1 Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.54, is amended to read:

18.2 611A.54 AMOUNT OF ~~REPARATIONS~~ REIMBURSEMENT.

18.3 ~~Reparations~~ Reimbursement shall equal economic loss except that:

18.4 (1) ~~reparations~~ reimbursement shall be reduced to the extent that economic loss is 18.5 recouped from a collateral source or collateral sources. Where compensation is readily 18.6 available to a claimant from a collateral source, the claimant must take reasonable steps to 18.7 recoup from the collateral source before claiming ~~reparations~~ reimbursement;

18.8 (2) ~~reparations~~ reimbursement shall be denied or reduced to the extent, if any, that the 18.9 board deems reasonable because of the contributory misconduct of the claimant or of a 18.10 victim through whom the claimant claims. Contributory misconduct does not include current 18.11 or past affiliation with any particular group; and

18.12 (3) ~~reparations~~ reimbursement paid to all claimants suffering economic loss as the result 18.13 of the injury or death of any one victim shall not exceed $50,000.

18.14 No employer may deny an employee an award of benefits based on the employee's 18.15 eligibility or potential eligibility for ~~reparations~~ reimbursement.

18.16 Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.55, is amended to read:

18.17 611A.55 CRIME VICTIMS ~~REPARATIONS~~ REIMBURSEMENT BOARD.

18.18 Subdivision 1. Creation of board. There is created in the Department of Public Safety,
18.19 for budgetary and administrative purposes, the Crime Victims ~~Reparations~~ Reimbursement
18.20 Board, which shall consist of five members appointed by the commissioner of public safety.
18.21 One of the members shall be designated as chair by the commissioner of public safety and 18.22 serve as such at the commissioner's pleasure. At least one member shall be a medical or 18.23 osteopathic physician licensed to practice in this state, and at least one member shall be a 18.24 victim, as defined in section 611A.01.

18.25 Subd. 2. Membership, terms and compensation. The membership terms, compensation,
18.26 removal of members, and filling of vacancies on the board shall be as provided in section 18.27 15.0575.

18.28 Subd. 3. Part-time service. Members of the board shall serve part time.

19.1 Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.56, is amended to read:

19.2 611A.56 POWERS AND DUTIES OF BOARD.

19.3 Subdivision 1. Duties. In addition to carrying out any duties specified elsewhere in 19.4 sections 611A.51 to 611A.68 or in other law, the board shall:

19.5 (1) provide all claimants with an opportunity for hearing pursuant to chapter 14;

19.6 (2) adopt rules to implement and administer sections 611A.51 to 611A.68, including 19.7 rules governing the method of practice and procedure before the board, prescribing the 19.8 manner in which applications for ~~reparations~~ reimbursement shall be made, and providing 19.9 for discovery proceedings;

19.10 (3) publicize widely the availability of ~~reparations~~ reimbursement and the method of 19.11 making claims; and

19.12 (4) prepare and transmit annually to the governor and the commissioner of public safety 19.13 a report of its activities including the number of claims awarded, a brief description of the 19.14 facts in each case, the amount of ~~reparation~~ reimbursement awarded, and a statistical 19.15 summary of claims and awards made and denied.

19.16 Subd. 2. Powers. In addition to exercising any powers specified elsewhere in sections
19.17 611A.51 to 611A.68 or other law, the board upon its own motion or the motion of a claimant 19.18 or the attorney general may:

19.19 (1) issue subpoenas for the appearance of witnesses and the production of books, records,
19.20 and other documents;

19.21 (2) administer oaths and affirmations and cause to be taken affidavits and depositions
19.22 within and without this state;

19.23 (3) take notice of judicially cognizable facts and general, technical, and scientific facts
19.24 within their specialized knowledge;

19.25 (4) order a mental or physical examination of a victim or an autopsy of a deceased victim
19.26 provided that notice is given to the person to be examined and that the claimant and the 19.27 attorney general receive copies of any resulting report;

19.28 (5) suspend or postpone the proceedings on a claim if a criminal prosecution arising out 19.29 of the incident which is the basis of the claim has been commenced or is imminent;

19.30 (6) request from prosecuting attorneys and law enforcement officers investigations and 19.31 data to enable the board to perform its duties under sections 611A.51 to 611A.68;

20.1 (7) grant emergency ~~reparations~~ reimbursement pending the final determination of a 20.2 claim if it is one with respect to which an award will probably be made and undue hardship 20.3 will result to the claimant if immediate payment is not made; and

20.4 (8) reconsider any decision granting or denying ~~reparations~~ reimbursement or determining 20.5 their amount.

20.6 Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.57, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

20.7 Subd. 5. Reconsideration. The claimant may, within 30 days after receiving the decision
20.8 of the board, apply for reconsideration before the entire board. Upon request for 20.9 reconsideration, the board shall reexamine all information filed by the claimant, including 20.10 any new information the claimant provides, and all information obtained by investigation.
20.11 The board may also conduct additional examination into the validity of the claim. Upon 20.12 reconsideration, the board may affirm, modify, or reverse the prior ruling. A claimant denied 20.13 ~~reparations~~ reimbursement upon reconsideration is entitled to a contested case hearing within 20.14 the meaning of chapter 14.

20.15 Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.57, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

20.16 Subd. 6. Data. Claims for ~~reparations~~ reimbursement and supporting documents and 20.17 reports are investigative data and subject to the provisions of section 13.39 until the claim
20.18 is paid, denied, withdrawn, or abandoned. Following the payment, denial, withdrawal, or 20.19 abandonment of a claim, the claim and supporting documents and reports are private data 20.20 on individuals as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12; provided that the board may 20.21 forward any ~~reparations~~ reimbursement claim forms, supporting documents, and reports to 20.22 local law enforcement authorities for purposes of implementing section 611A.67.

20.23 Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.60, is amended to read:

20.24 611A.60 REPARATIONS REIMBURSEMENT; HOW PAID.

20.25 ~~Reparations~~ Reimbursement may be awarded in a lump sum or in installments in the 20.26 discretion of the board. The amount of any emergency award shall be deducted from the 20.27 final award, if a lump sum, or prorated over a period of time if the final award is made in 20.28 installments. ~~Reparations are~~ Reimbursement is exempt from execution or attachment except 20.29 by persons who have supplied services, products or accommodations to the victim as a result
20.30 of the injury or death which is the basis of the claim. The board, in its discretion may order 20.31 that all or part of the ~~reparations~~ reimbursement awarded be paid directly to these suppliers.

21.1 Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.61, is amended to read:

21.2 611A.61 SUBROGATION.

21.3 Subdivision 1. Subrogation rights of state. The state shall be subrogated, to the extent 21.4 of ~~reparations~~ reimbursement awarded, to all the claimant's rights to recover benefits or 21.5 advantages for economic loss from a source which is or, if readily available to the victim
21.6 or claimant would be, a collateral source. Nothing in this section shall limit the claimant's 21.7 right to bring a cause of action to recover for other damages.

21.8 Subd. 2. Duty of claimant to assist. A claimant who receives ~~reparations~~ reimbursement
21.9 must agree to assist the state in pursuing any subrogation rights arising out of the claim.
21.10 The board may require a claimant to agree to represent the state's subrogation interests if 21.11 the claimant brings a cause of action for damages arising out of the crime or occurrence for 21.12 which the board has awarded ~~reparations~~ reimbursement. An attorney who represents the 21.13 state's subrogation interests pursuant to the client's agreement with the board is entitled to 21.14 reasonable attorney's fees not to exceed one-third of the amount recovered on behalf of the 21.15 state.

21.16 Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.612, is amended to read:

21.17 611A.612 CRIME VICTIMS ACCOUNT.

21.18 A crime victim account is established as a special account in the state treasury. Amounts
21.19 collected by the state under section 611A.61, paid to the Crime Victims ~~Reparations~~ 21.20 Reimbursement Board under section 611A.04, subdivision 1a, or amounts deposited by the 21.21 court under section 611A.04, subdivision 5, shall be credited to this account. Money credited
21.22 to this account is annually appropriated to the Department of Public Safety for use for crime
21.23 victim ~~reparations~~ reimbursement under sections 611A.51 to 611A.67.

21.24 Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.66, is amended to read:

21.25 611A.66 LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES; DUTY TO INFORM VICTIMS
21.26 OF RIGHT TO FILE CLAIM.

21.27 All law enforcement agencies investigating crimes shall provide victims with notice of 21.28 their right to apply for ~~reparations~~ reimbursement with the telephone number ~~to call to~~ 21.29 ~~request~~ and website information to obtain an application form.

21.30 Law enforcement agencies shall assist the board in performing its duties under sections
21.31 611A.51 to 611A.68. Law enforcement agencies within ten days after receiving a request
21.32 from the board shall supply the board with requested reports, notwithstanding any provisions

22.1 to the contrary in chapter 13, and including reports otherwise maintained as confidential or 22.2 not open to inspection under section 260B.171 or 260C.171. All data released to the board 22.3 retains the data classification that it had in the possession of the law enforcement agency.

22.4 Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.68, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

22.5 Subd. 2a. Notice and payment of proceeds to board required. A person that enters
22.6 into a contract with an offender convicted in this state, and a person that enters into a contract
22.7 in this state with an offender convicted in this state or elsewhere within the United States, 22.8 must comply with this section if the person enters into the contract during the ten years after 22.9 the offender is convicted of a crime or found not guilty by reason of insanity. If an offender
22.10 is imprisoned or committed to an institution following the conviction or finding of not guilty
22.11 by reason of insanity, the ten-year period begins on the date of the offender's release. A
22.12 person subject to this section must notify the Crime Victims ~~Reparations~~ Reimbursement
22.13 Board of the existence of the contract immediately upon its formation, and pay over to the 22.14 board money owed to the offender or the offender's representatives by virtue of the contract
22.15 according to the following proportions:

22.16 (1) if the crime occurred in this state, the person shall pay to the board 100 percent of 22.17 the money owed under the contract;

22.18 (2) if the crime occurred in another jurisdiction having a law applicable to the contract
22.19 which is substantially similar to this section, this section does not apply, and the person 22.20 must not pay to the board any of the money owed under the contract; and

22.21 (3) in all other cases, the person shall pay to the board that percentage of money owed 22.22 under the contract which can fairly be attributed to commerce in this state with respect to 22.23 the subject matter of the contract.

22.24 Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.68, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

22.25 Subd. 4. Deductions. When the board has made ~~reparations~~ reimbursement payments
22.26 to or on behalf of a victim of the offender's crime pursuant to sections 611A.51 to 611A.68,
22.27 it shall deduct the amount of the ~~reparations~~ reimbursement award from any payment
22.28 received under this section by virtue of the offender's contract unless the board has already 22.29 been reimbursed for the ~~reparations~~ award from another collateral source.

22.30 Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 611A.68, subdivision 4b, is amended to read:

22.31 Subd. 4b. Claims by victims of offender's crime. A victim of a crime committed by 22.32 the offender and the estate of a deceased victim of a crime committed by the offender may

23.1 submit the following claims for ~~reparations~~ reimbursement and damages to the board to be 23.2 paid from money received by virtue of the offender's contract:

23.3 (1) claims for ~~reparations~~ reimbursement to which the victim is entitled under sections
23.4 611A.51 to 611A.68 and for which the victim has not yet received an award from the board;

23.5 (2) claims for ~~reparations~~ reimbursement to which the victim would have been entitled
23.6 under sections 611A.51 to 611A.68, but for the $50,000 maximum limit contained in section 23.7 611A.54, clause (3); and

23.8 (3) claims for other uncompensated damages suffered by the victim as a result of the 23.9 offender's crime including, but not limited to, damages for pain and suffering.
