Overview

This bill provides a process to register a Canadian court judgment for money in Minnesota. This process is in addition to the existing process to registering a foreign-money judgment from another jurisdiction but has a court form that simplifies the filing and notice procedures. This is a Uniform Law drafted by the Uniform Laws Commission and has been enacted in Colorado, Nevada, Nebraska, and Rhode Island.

Summary

Section	Description
1	Short title. Provides a short title for the law “Uniform Registration of Canadian Money Judgement Act.” (URCMJA)
2	Definitions. Provides definitions for the terms “Canada” and “Canadian judgment” and excludes judgments from other foreign countries recognized by a Canadian court.
3	Applicability. Provides that the sections included in the URCMJA are only applicable to the registration and enforcement of the part of judgment that relates to the grant of the recovery of a sum of money.
4	Registration of Canadian judgment. Provides a process to register a Canadian judgment with a court in Minnesota and requires the court documents to include information including: the amount owed in the judgment; the amount paid; and the amount owed due to fees and costs. This section provides a court form to use to register a Canadian money judgement.

Section	Description
5	Effect of registration. Provides that a judgment registered under this section is recognized and enforceable in the same manner and to the same extent as a judgment rendered in this state.
6	Notice of registration. Provides notice of the registration of the judgment to the person who the judgment is against and proof of that notice to the court.
7	Petition to vacate registration. Provides that a person may oppose the registration of a judgment against them, within 30 days of notice or later if the court allows it, and provides what the petition to oppose the registration of a judgement for money must include.
8	Stay of enforcement of judgment pending determination of petitions. Allows the court to stay the enforcement of a Canadian judgment for money until the petition to vacate the registration has been determined if the petition to vacate shows merit.
9	Relationship to Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act. Allows a person to file a Canadian judgment for money under either the URCMJA or the existing law for registering a foreign judgment for money, but not both.
10	Uniformity of application and interpretation. Requires the court to consider the need for uniformity in application of the uniform law.
11	Transitional provision. Provides that this uniform law would apply to court orders entered in a proceeding that is commenced in Canada on or after this law is passed in Minnesota.
12	Effective date. Provides that the URCMJA is effective on January 1, 2022.
