

Subject State-declared disaster definition

Authors Pelowski and others

Analyst Anna Scholin

Date February 22, 2021

Summary

This bill would restrict the definition of “disaster” under state law to exclude catastrophes caused by civil unrest. Such events would no longer be eligible for state cost-share assistance to local governments. This change would be retroactive to January 1, 2020.