

The vast majority of Minnesotans oppose this legislation. It represents insistent ideology by a minority of vocal representatives and out-of-state agitators. I oppose this legislation because it restricts the Constitutional rights of law-abiding citizens, lacks due process and doesn't impact problems you are trying to address.