

Subject Bond or security requirements; housing court

Authors Agbaje and others

Analyst Mary Mullen

Date February 23, 2022

Summary

This bill removed certain provisions from chapter 504B that require a tenant to pay the costs and previously owed rent into the court prior to defending an action in housing court except as required in the case of an appeal of a housing court matter under Minnesota Statutes, section 504B.371.