

Subject Farmed white-tailed deer

Authors Hansen, R. and others

Analyst Colbey Sullivan

Date March 4, 2022

Summary

This bill would prohibit the Board of Animal Health from approving new registrations for the possession of farmed white-tailed deer. Under current law and the bill, the Department of Natural Resources may seize and destroy white-tailed deer and other farmed cervids possessed by a person who is not registered with the Board of Animal Health.