11.19 provided by the employee or an employee's family member, the employer must treat such 11.20 information as confidential.

11.21 Information given by an employee may only be disclosed by an employer if the disclosure

11.27 separate from the usual personnel files. At the request of the employee, the employer must 11.28 destroy or return the records required by sections 181.9445 to 181.9448 that are older than 12.2 Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 2023 Supplement, section 181.9448, subdivision 1, is amended 12.3 to read:

12.4 Subdivision 1. No effect on more generous sick and safe time policies. (a) Nothing 12.5 in sections 181.9445 to 181.9448 shall be construed to discourage employers from adopting 12.6 or retaining earned sick and safe time policies that meet or exceed, and do not otherwise 12.7 conflict with, the minimum standards and requirements provided in sections 181.9445 to 12.8 181.9448, provided that all time provided to an employee by an employer for absences from 12.9 work due to personal illness or injury, but not including short-term or long-term disability
12.10 or other salary continuation benefits, meet or exceed the minimum standards and requirements 12.11 provided in sections 181.9445 to 181.9448.

12.12 (b) Nothing in sections 181.9445 to 181.9448 shall be construed to limit the right of 12.13 parties to a collective bargaining agreement to bargain and agree with respect to earned sick 12.14 and safe time policies or to diminish the obligation of an employer to comply with any 12.15 contract, collective bargaining agreement, or any employment benefit program or plan that 12.16 meets or exceeds, and does not otherwise conflict with, the minimum standards and 12.17 requirements provided in this section.

12.18 (c) Nothing in sections 181.9445 to 181.9448 shall be construed to preempt, limit, or 12.19 otherwise affect the applicability of any other law, regulation, requirement, policy, or 12.20 standard that provides for a greater amount, accrual, or use by employees of paid sick and 12.21 safe time or that extends other protections to employees.

12.22 (d) Nothing in sections 181.9445 to 181.9448 shall be construed or applied so as to 12.23 create any power or duty in conflict with federal law.

12.24 (e) Employers who provide earned sick and safe time to their employees under a paid 12.25 time off policy or other paid leave policy that may be used for the same purposes and under 12.26 the same conditions as earned sick and safe time, and that meets or exceeds, and does not 12.27 otherwise conflict with, the minimum standards and requirements provided in sections 12.28 181.9445 to 181.9448 are not required to provide additional earned sick and safe time.

12.29 (f) The provisions of sections 181.9445 to 181.9448 may be waived by a collective 12.30 bargaining agreement with a bona fide building and construction trades labor organization
12.31 that has established itself as the collective bargaining representative for the affected building 12.32 and construction industry employees, provided that for such waiver to be valid, it shall

13.1 explicitly reference sections 181.9445 to 181.9448 and clearly and unambiguously waive 13.2 application of those sections to such employees.

13.3 (g) An individual provider, as defined in section 256B.0711, subdivision 1, paragraph 13.4 (d), who provides services through a consumer support grant under section 256.476,
13.5 consumer-directed community supports under section 256B.4911, or community first services
13.6 and supports under section 256B.85, to a family member who is a participant, as defined
13.7 in section 256B.0711, subdivision 1, paragraph (e), may individually waive the provisions 13.8 of sections 181.9445 to 181.9448 for the remainder of the participant's service plan year,
13.9 provided that the funds are returned to the participant's budget. Once an individual provider 13.10 has waived the provisions of sections 181.9445 to 181.9448, they may not accrue earned 13.11 sick and safe time until the start of the participant's next service plan year.

13.12 ~~(g)~~ (h) Sections 181.9445 to 181.9448 do not prohibit an employer from establishing a 13.13 policy whereby employees may donate unused accrued sick and safe time to another 13.14 employee.

13.15 ~~(h)~~ (i) Sections 181.9445 to 181.9448 do not prohibit an employer from advancing sick

13.21 require financial or other reimbursement to an employee from an employer upon the 13.22 employee's termination, resignation, retirement, or other separation from employment for 13.23 accrued earned sick and safe time that has not been used. If an employee is transferred to 13.24 a separate division, entity, or location, but remains employed by the same employer, the 13.25 employee is entitled to all earned sick and safe time accrued at the prior division, entity, or 13.26 location and is entitled to use all earned sick and safe time as provided in sections 181.9445
13.27 to 181.9448. When there is a separation from employment and the employee is rehired 13.28 within 180 days of separation by the same employer, previously accrued earned sick and 13.29 safe time that had not been used or otherwise disbursed to the benefit of the employee upon 13.30 separation must be reinstated. An employee is entitled to use accrued earned sick and safe 13.31 time and accrue additional earned sick and safe time at the commencement of reemployment.
