COMMUNITY CONVERSATION: HEALTH CARE THAT WORKS FOR EVERYONE

The US health care system works well for some Americans, but it is also far more costly and protects fewer people than those of other developed countries. How can we have a system that provides affordable, high-quality care to everyone? Our presenter, a knowledgeable physician and advocate, will help us answer this question, keeping in mind the strengths and shortcomings of the Affordable Care Act, the health care systems of other countries, and more. Join us!
