1.14 the terms of this supplement agreement prevail.

1.15 12.2. Each caucus leader agrees to work in good faith to secure ratification of this supplemental
1.16 agreement without further amendment.

1.17 13. Committee and Floor Procedure.

1.18 13.1. A minority report to a committee report is not in order.

1.19 13.2. The fiscal calendar established under House Rule 1.22 is not in effect.

1.20 13.3. If a question of germaneness is raised under House Rule 3.21 and the question is put
1.21 to the body, or if a decision of the presiding officer under House Rule 3.21 is appealed, the

2.1 affirmative vote of at least one member of each caucus is required to find the motion or proposition
2.2 germane.

2.3 13.4. The following motions may only be approved by the House by the affirmative vote of
2.4 at least 68 members:

2.5 to adjourn sine die; and

2.6 to take a bill from the table.

2.7 13.5. A resolution to vacate the office of Speaker may only be approved by the House by the
2.8 affirmative vote of at least 68 members.

2.9 14. Legislative Coordinating Commission Duties.

2.10 14.1. The Speaker Emerita is designated as the Speaker of the House for the purpose of
