Overview

This bill makes changes to the radioactive material license fee and fees for radiation-producing equipment. It updates terminology to reflect current technology.

Section

- 1 Application and license renewal fee. Amends § 144.1205, subd. 1. Removes current statutory language relating to renewing a license for radioactive material by paying a license renewal fee. Removes current language stating the license expiration date is set by the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission before transfer of the licensing program.
- 2 Fees for ionizing radiation-producing equipment. Amends § 144.121, subd. 1a. Makes a technical change, requires an annual registration fee (current law requires a biennial fee), and decreases the base facility fee from $132 to $66. Provides fee decreases for several radiation sources.
- 3 Examination for individual operating x-ray equipment. Amends § 144.121, subd. 5. Makes a technical change.
- 4 Composition of task force. Extends the expiration date of the Maternal and Child Health Advisory Task Force from 2007 to 2011.
- 5 Repealer. Repeals § 144.121, subd. 1c (fee for x-ray machines and other sources of ionizing radiation); and § 144.121, subd. 4 (radiation monitoring).
